Physical Education

The Physical Education Department strives to promote good health by encouraging relaxation and physical exercise for all students. The students also become acquainted with the qualities of leadership, good sportsmanship, and cooperation. With the best of sports equipment each student learns the fundamentals of many games, such as bowling, tennis, golf, and basketball.

Maintenance

Due to the very excellent job performed by the Maintenance Staff, Central High School is kept in a clean and sanitary condition. Not only do they keep our halls and class rooms in order, but they also maintain the swimming pool and care for the lawns.

A truck mechanic opens the door to take a look. BELOW: "Let's look and observe."

Careers day offers job market outlook

The Careers day programs were designed to enlighten students to a wide range of professions. Last spring the program offered a Health Careers day to start it off. This school year the professions offered were Automotive and Engine, Office and Related, Food Careers, Related Sales, Related Personal, Related Protective and Related Skill Trades. The Health Career program had nurses and skilled x-ray technicians who demonstrated various machines such as the EKG machine. The Automotive and Engine Careers day had an instructor show some students a semi-truck and explain how to operate it. The program was designed to give students a better idea of what they might do after graduation.

PRESIDENT BOB HYDE conducts a meeting with members of Varsity Club as they discuss sportsmanship during the club meeting.

Road Rovers and Varsity Club Stress Sportsmanship, Skills

Being one of the most practical clubs at Central, the Road Rovers Club helps students learn about automobiles through practical experience. Sponsor Mr. Marvin Lasec ke assists students at the meetings each Saturday.

Boys who participate in sports are able to achieve membership in Varsity Club. After gaining a predetermined amount of points, boys may attend the club's meetings during group, once a month. Mr. Dean Ludwig sponsors the club.

CHECKING A WHEEL ALIGNMENT CHART are Doug Lowry, Dick Appleton, and Jack Talley. Road Rover members.

AMONG THE VARIED DUTIES of Miss Mabel Pinel are helping to develop new courses of instruction to include in Central's curriculum, and coordinating the extra-curricular program.

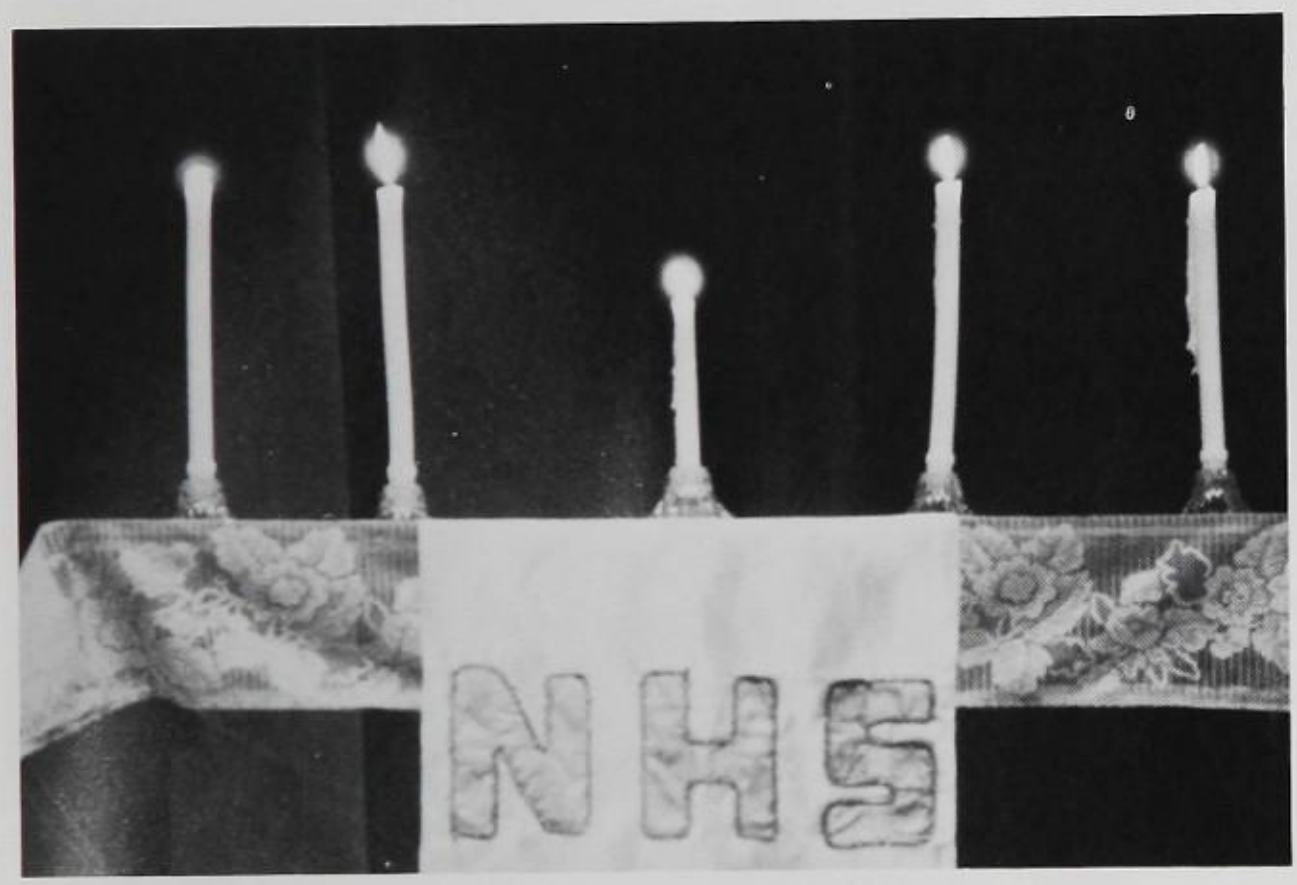
N.H.S. Continues Tradition

The National Honor Society is an organization whose purpose is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of secondary schools.

Through NHS chapter service activities, members maintain and extend the qualities that won them selection. Membership is thus both an HONOR and an OBLIGATION. Over the past year NHS students at Central participated in many activities to raise money, such as the Hallow-gram sale, a charity food and fund drive for Christmas, a Santa Claus picture sale, a M&M/Reeses sale, and many others. All of the money that was raised went towards civic donations, scheduled activities and scholarships for 4.0 graduating seniors at Central.

The National Honor Society at Central is involved in many things, many things the average student does not hear about but without the NHS many people would be left unaided.

Officers for this year are President Joel Quine, Vice President William Smith, Secretary Kimberly Hoedeman, and Treasurer Scott Dickson.



(opposite page) Each year in May the NHS conducts its initiation ceremonies. Juniors who qualify for and receive recommendations go through the process of pledging their allegiance to the NHS and its goals.

N.H.S. stays active during school year

This year's National Honor Society continued to be very active under the direction of Mr. Lloyd Bateman and Mr. Ken McLean. Along with the third annual Christmas door decorating contest to raise funds for Toys for Tots, a canned goods contest was held with the staples going to the Rubicon House, a drug rehabilitation center. NHS students again ran the Crapo Bar and Grill and offered a tutoring service to fellow students as well as to junior high and elementary school students. In other activities, one group of the society went trick-or-treating for UNICEF and collected $326. Also an Alumni Party was held to acquaint old and new members of the honorary society.

NJROTC . . . A Central Exclusive

Central High School has had the honor and privilege of acting as building host and sponsor of the Navy branch of the Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps, otherwise known as the NJROTC. The NJROTC is a one hour, one credit hour class per semester which is open to all Flint Community High School "magnet" students. The main objective of the course is to develop well-rounded, patriotic, and mature individuals who wish to accept the responsibilities as American citizens in a branch of the armed forces.

The NJROTC has regularly scheduled meetings after school in room 400. It's officers are: Terry Burbank—Company Commander; James Houston—Company Executive; Officer Pam Adams—Company Operations Officer.

The NJROTC is involved in many activities. Every year the NJROTC sells candy in order to raise money for their annual field trip to Norfolk, Virginia and to participate in various drill team competitions around the Great Lakes area.

The NJROTC at Central High School is under the command of United States Naval Officer Commander Dorow and Chief Guenther.

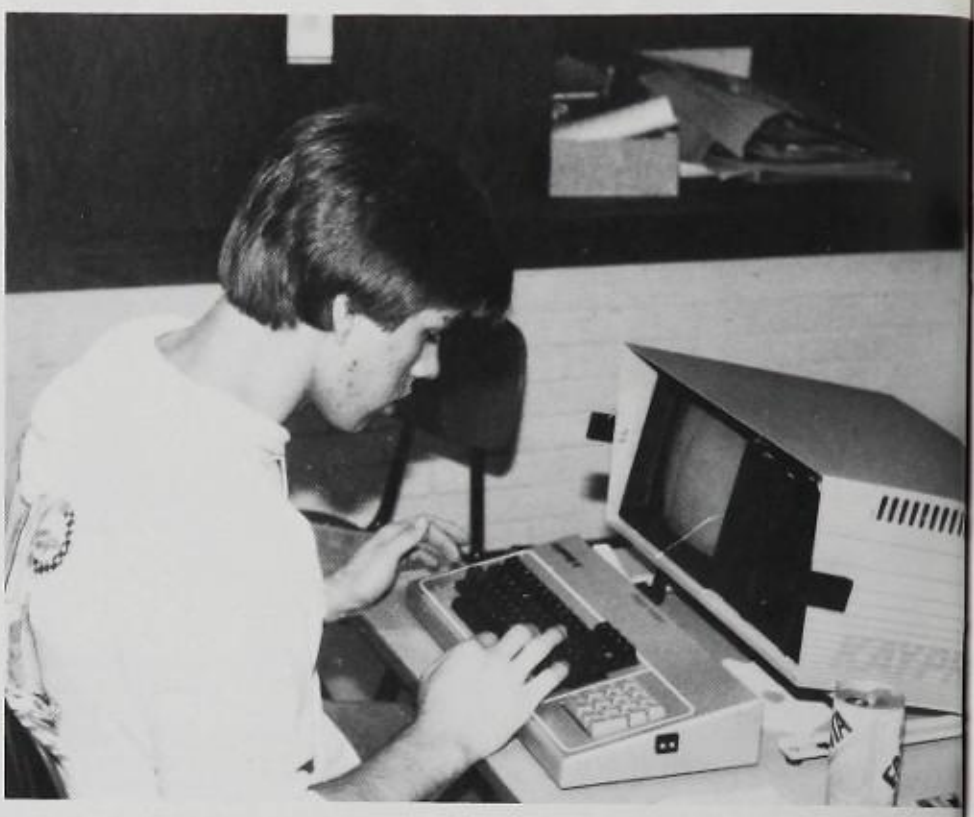
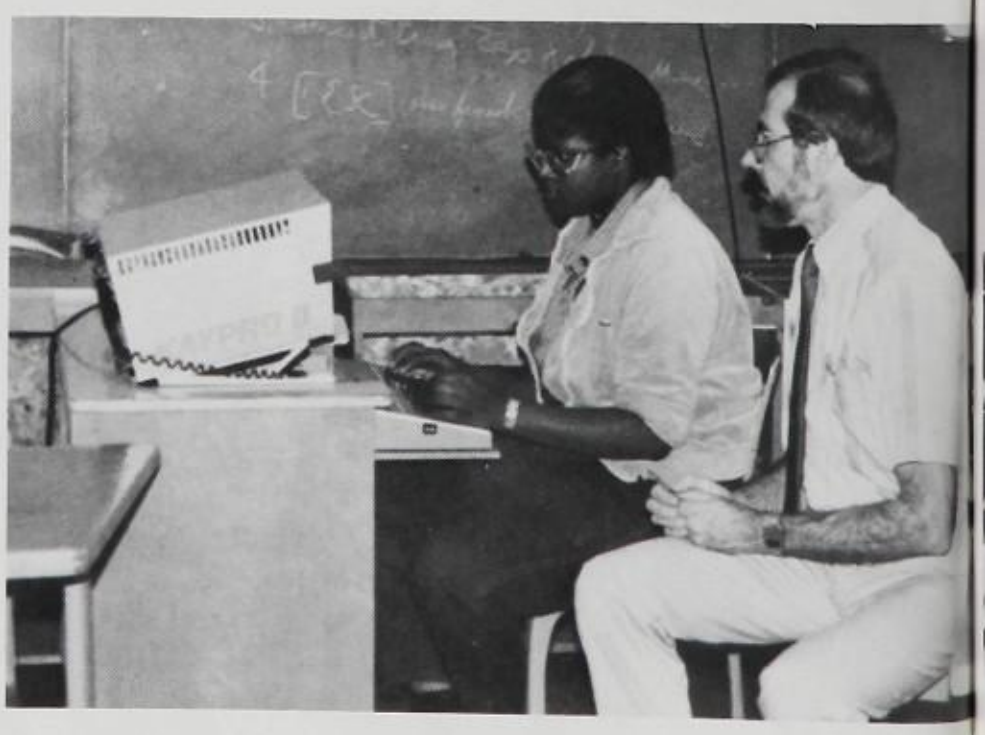
Prospectus goes hightech

This year Flint Central's yearbook, THE PROSPECTUS, has a totally new look. Under the new leadership of Mr. Fred Vest the 1983-1984 PROSPECTUS will have a unique style.

The yearbook is commemorating Flint Central High school's sixtieth anniversary. Each of the division pages has pictures from past yearbooks and throughout the yearbook special sections will highlight certain aspects of early Central life.

Another unique aspect of the 1983-1984 yearbook is the fact that it was put together by a computer. Mr. Vest's computer made the job a whole lot easier; it edited, filed, and made the whole process practically "goof-proof". Much hard work has been put into this book and we, The PROSPECTUS staff, hope it is enjoyed by everyone!





BOEC high in competitions

The Flint Central chapter of the Business, Office, and Education Club is one of our more active clubs. It is an intra-curricular activity, in keeping with the Business Department objectives of academics, leadership, citizenship, as well as social attributes. Therefore, students become more aware of the importance of taking on responsibilities. Each year club members attend regional and state leadership conferences and compete in several areas of office, career, and leadership skills.

The officers this year are: President Tracy Hargis, Vice President Maria Anselmo, Secretary Tina Caballero, Treasurer Dawn Moore, Reporter Karen Auten, and Parliamentarian Lena Isaac. The club's advisors are Betty Harris and Helen Collins.

Theatre at Central

The Theatre Department at Central provides interested and involved students the opportunity to gain an understanding of the commitment, the discipline, the team work, and the world of theatre from an educational and professional point of view.

Central's Theatre Department has attracted many to another season of drama, comedy, and musicals with Carousel, The Fantastics, The Miracle Worker, and Scapino.

New elements in the Theater program this year included reserved seating for all performances, season ticket sales, and patron/sponsor program advertising.

Central's theater program is under the leadership of Mr. Martin Jennings.

Students who actively participate in the Theatre program have an opportunity to join the INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY—an organization designed to heighten the professionalism and opportunities available to theatre students.

The Thespians participate in many programs designed to support the theatre and the arts at Flint Central. This year's Thespian troupe attended the Michigan State Thespian Conference with their musical THE FANTASTIKS.

Officers this year include President Jennifer Ramsdell, Vice-President Janet Haley, Secretary Jenna Randels, and Treasurer Morris Arvoy and Joel Bates.

Fiddler on the Roof appeals to audience

Prepared by Flint Central High School Fine Arts Department. "Fiddler on the Roof" was a complete success. There were many students involved in this musical. "Fiddler on the Roof" showed the most student participation of recent plays. It was led by vocal musical director James Dawkins, drama director Mark Sterner, Orchestra director Thomas Glasscock, and choreography by Miss Molly Sapp. There were three performances Feb. 14, 15, and 16, with a matinee during 3, 4, and 5th hours.

Spirit is on the Warpath

Spirit Week 1983 was a rousing success. The main purpose of this event is to promote student involvement in school sponsored activities. A large number of students and staff participated this year displaying enthusiasm about Central—the Number One school in Flint.

Activities this year included a pie-eating contest, a shaving cream fight, the traditional powder-puff football game complete with male cheerleaders, an auction of school athletes, a pumpkin push race, a scream-off, a poster contest, and the traditional red and black dress-up contest.

This years over-all winner was the Junior Class—the class of '85, with the Seniors coming in a close second.

Model U.N. goes abroad

Model United Nations is an extracurricular activity for students of the Flint Magnet Schools. It allows students to debate international issues and try to resolve world conflicts through the development and debate of draft resolutions.

As members of the U.N. club, students play the roles of United Nations member nations and research all aspects of a country's foreign and domestic policies. Students research issues in depth in order that they may attend THE GREAT LAKES MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE which this year was held at Stouffer's Inn in Battle Creek, Michigan. The students involved in the Model U.N. attended the International Conference on African Affairs in November at Michigan State University. The students also conducted a mock debate on relative current issues at the Eastland Mall in recognition of United Nations Day.

In addition, fifteen students, who are senior members of the U.N. Club, participated in the 13th Annual American High School Model United Nations Invitational Conference held March 28th and 29th, in Mexico City, Mexico. The students having the opportunity to attend the simulation were: Becky Brandt, Brooke Burroughs; Cindy Collard, Kristin Herron, Kim Hoedeman, John Lutton, Joel Quine, Eric Richardson, Linda Roth, Miller Schuck, Bob Sellars, Bill Smith, Paul Streby, Pam Thompson, and Rick Yuille. These students also acted as hosts for the Mexico City students when they attended the Great Lakes Conference in April.

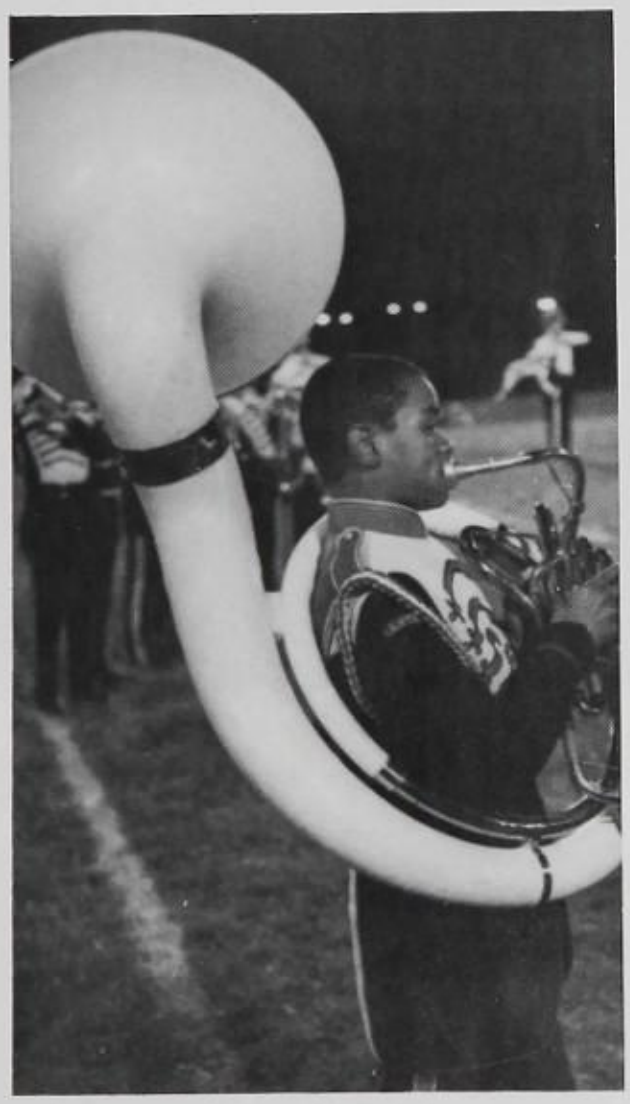
The Marching Indians

The Marching Indians of 1983 were accompanied by the Color Guard and the Streamer Line. These groups teamed up to perform at all home football games and at the great Spirit Week pep assembly. The dedication and hard work of the members and their leaders was instrumental in achieving the high degree of excellence shown at all their performances.



Ski Club

Central's Ski Club was rather active this year, mainly because there was snow until February. The purpose of the club is to promote fun and safety in down hill skiing. The club also facilitates car pools to the slopes of Mt. Holly and the purchase of student discount tickets. The club met Tuesdays to plan the transportation for their regular Thursday ski outing.

Mrs. Goulet was the faculty advisor this year, even though an injury kept her off the slopes.

Student Congress

The Student Congress was instituted this year after the former Student Council failed to function. With Principal Dean Ludwig advising the Congress, it has become a more effective group. Among the projects undertaken this year has been a rewriting of the constitution of the Congress. Several "involvement" campaigns have been tried to increase student involvement and pride in Central High School. These campaigns included a poster contest and social activities. The Congress also acts as a clearing house for school activities.

Dance Fever

Dances are among the most popular social activities at Central. The first dance is usually the Spirit Week dance, while the final dance of the year is the Senior Prom. In between, there is a Sadie Hawkins dance, and Valentines dance, a Punk Dance, a Fifties dance, and whatever other dance some school group wants to sponsor.

The photos on these pages are just a small sampling of the fun and frolic that characterize Central dances.

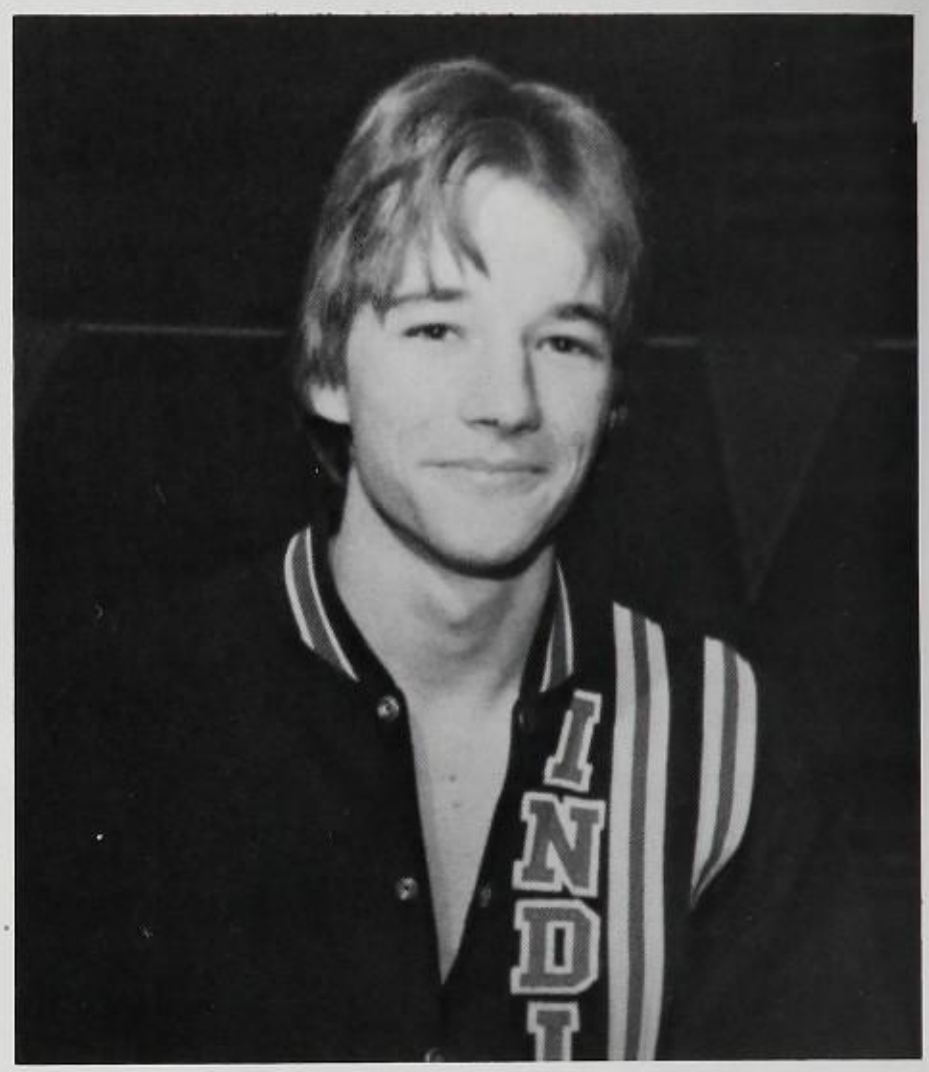
Exchange Students

The 1983-84 school year brought many new faces to Central, from all parts of the world—West Germany, Sweden, the Netherlands, and Brazil.

Central was very fortunate to be the host school for five foreign exchange students: Susanne Abrahamsen from Sweden, Anja Pueschel from West Berlin, West Germany, Heiner Luntz and Reiner Friedrich from West Germany, and Beatrix Lima from Brazil. These students shared their lives, their cultures, and their best-kept secrets with many new friends at Central and they shall never be forgotten.

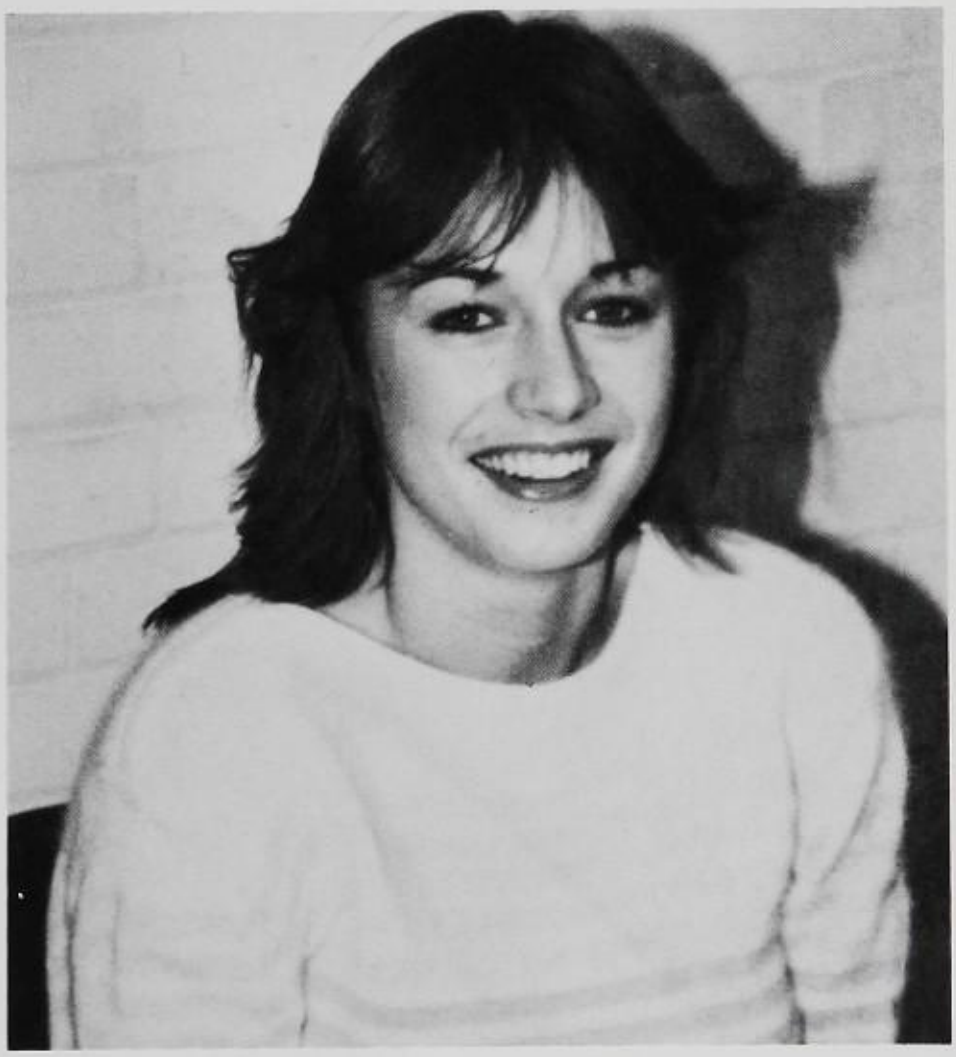


HEINER LUNTZ—Being a tourist in America three years ago, Heiner developed a curiosity about Americans, particularly American students and their political views about foreign affairs. As it turns out, he finds that most students have few political opinions and really care little about the subject. Flint is a nice place but rather impersonal, he finds. About the USA, Heiner says he likes his friends and the fact that students can drive and be so independent.

SUZANNE ABRAHAMSEN—Since being a tourist in America, Suzanne wanted to return and find out more about Americans. She likes the freedom of choice Central offers in the selection of classes. In her Stockholm school, she could choose very few classes, and spent most of her school life in classes with the same people. The girls swim team provided lots of enjoyment and good friends.

ANJA PUESCHEL—America was chosen for the place to study because friends told her that only in America can she find the real life. She wanted to find out if this was true. Anja is finding school here quite different than in Germany. Her activities here include volleyball, reading, watching TV, going to parties, and dancing.

REINER FRIEDRICH—The "magic of America" motivated Reiner to study here, along with the fact that his older brother had also been here and an uncle lives here. Although he misses his friends and the mountains of his homeland, he likes American "people, Kentucky Fried Chicken, MacDonalds, Saturday nights, and the swim team.



BEATRIX LIMA—Coming to America has been a long-time wish for Bea. She always wanted to learn English with American people and make new friends, while learning more about the United States. She likes everything about America. Of course she misses her family, friends, and teachers from home. Central is different from her school in Brazil because there, the teachers move from class to class, not the students. Yes, she likes MacDonalds! Yes, she likes to party! And what does she like most about America? "The people."

One of the foremost staffers at our prestigal, Mr. Yarrow, is to know a top flite coaching staff with which to build the best of character in the boys at Central. He is constantly striving to better the staff by adding another who can the best in their field as well as representatives of the highest moral and athletic characters.

Three of the new coaches who have recently been added are Marvin Shekel, George LeBrasseur, and Raymond Leuthen. These men head the wrestling team, baseball squad, and track team respectively. In the fall they combine their abilities to guide the Junior Varsity football team.

Another of these great coaches, a man who has been around Central for a much longer time, is the head football coach, Howard Auer. Mr. Auer is finishing his last season as coach. Next year, William Doolittle, also from Canton, will assume the worthy responsibility left to him by Mr. Auer. The latter also handled the golf squad this year.

Assisting Mr. Auer with the football squad is the head line coach, Mr. Malone, who also as concluding his football career this year. Mr. Malone is a great sportsman and his noble many invaluable contributions to the character of the boys with whom he has come in contact.

In his three years as head basketball coach Joseph Dowdy has proved his ability to handle boys and develop smooth running teams. Handling the Junior Varsity and Sophomore basketball squads for Mr. Dowdy are Roy McMurray and Vernard Gay. The latter is also coach of the cross-country team.

Rounding out the staff of top notch coaches are Alexander Crane and Chesnut Rowe. Mr. Crane is another new coach who did a fine job in his third year as swimming instructor. He produced an unusual amount of prospective swimming champions. The veterans of the coaching staff, Chesnut Rowe, again led the netters to a score of victories.

Topping the list of coaches at Central as the pride and glory of the athletic staff, Don Broome. Although retired as a coach, he is still considered the champion of character builders and sportsmen.

Phil Hendrix and Darion Johnson were the captains this year. David Burks received the Most Improved award. Micheal Gatewood received the Spirit Award, and George McNair the Heart Award. Terence Greene received Most Valuable Junior and also made All-State. Randy Levels won the Offensive Award while Darion Johnson received the Defensive Award. Phil Hendrix was the over-all most Valuable Player.

The season was very successful and the prospects for next year are very promising.

THE FOOTBALL TEAM

Junior Indians Are City Champions

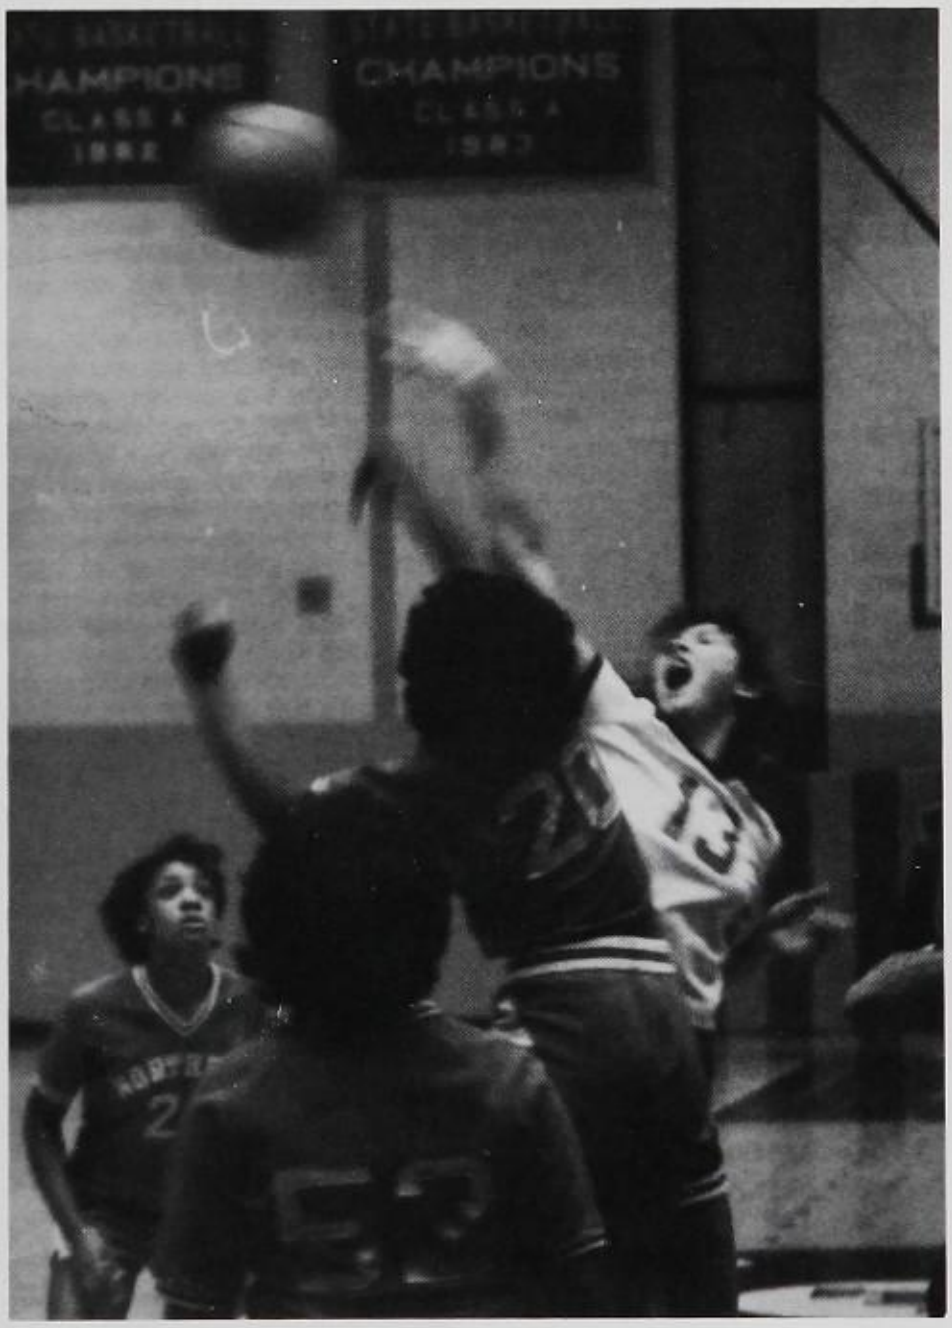
The 1983 Junior Varsity Football team finished with a six and two record. The only losses came against East Lansing and Midland Dow. Two games were shut-outs.

The Little Indians took the City Championship in 1983.

Long Season for J.V. Girls

The Junior Varsity Girls Basketball team managed only four wins in 1983. As with many girls teams this year, it was a small team and a learning team.

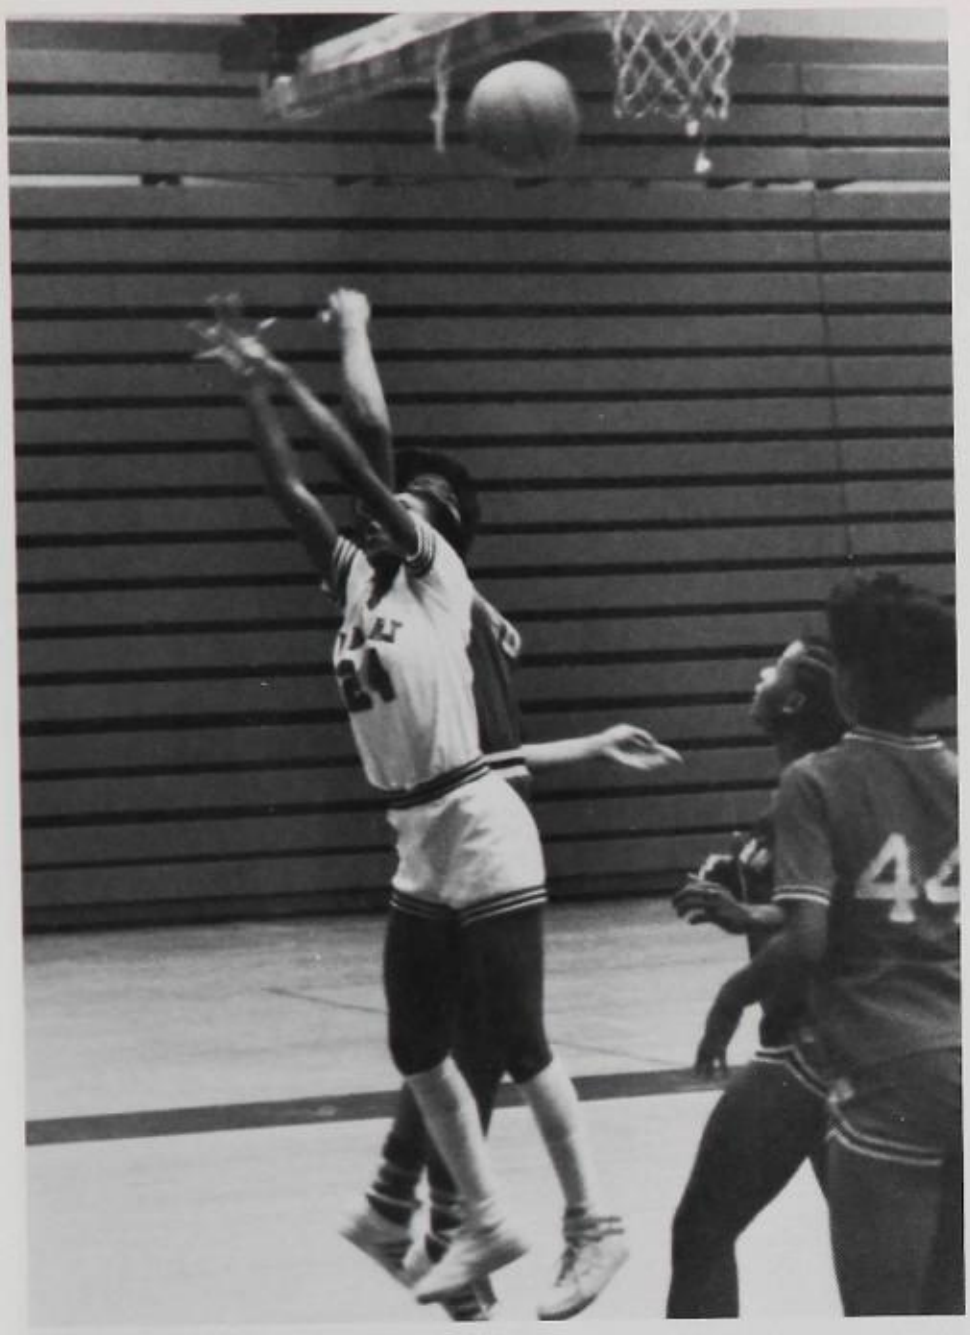
The team this was coached by Debbie Rider. This season's captain was Sonya Hobson. The Most Improved player was Betty Lee. The Most Valuable Player award was shared by Jennifer Lee and Kim Brown.



Varsity Girls Basketball— A Learning Season

The Varsity Girls Basketball team had a learning season in 1983. It was a young team and they worked hard to win every game. The eight victories this season were total team efforts, led by the only senior on the team.

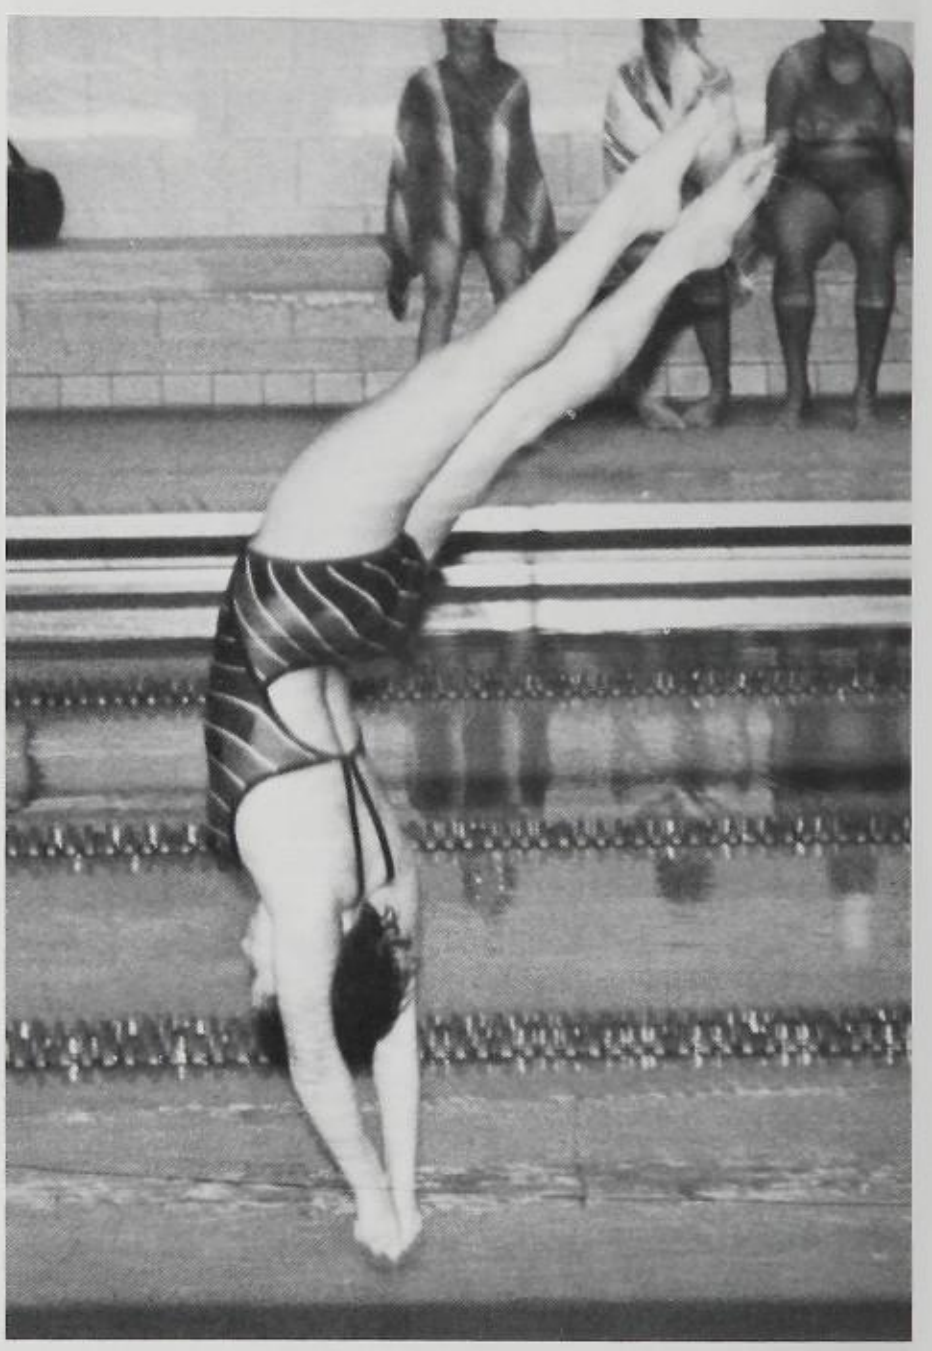
Lennore Richardson, captain for the 1983 season, set a school record of forty points in one game and averaged 23.9 points per game, along with sixteen rebounds per game. She also won a long list of awards: Most Valuable Player, All City and All Valley First Team, and Honorable Mention All State.

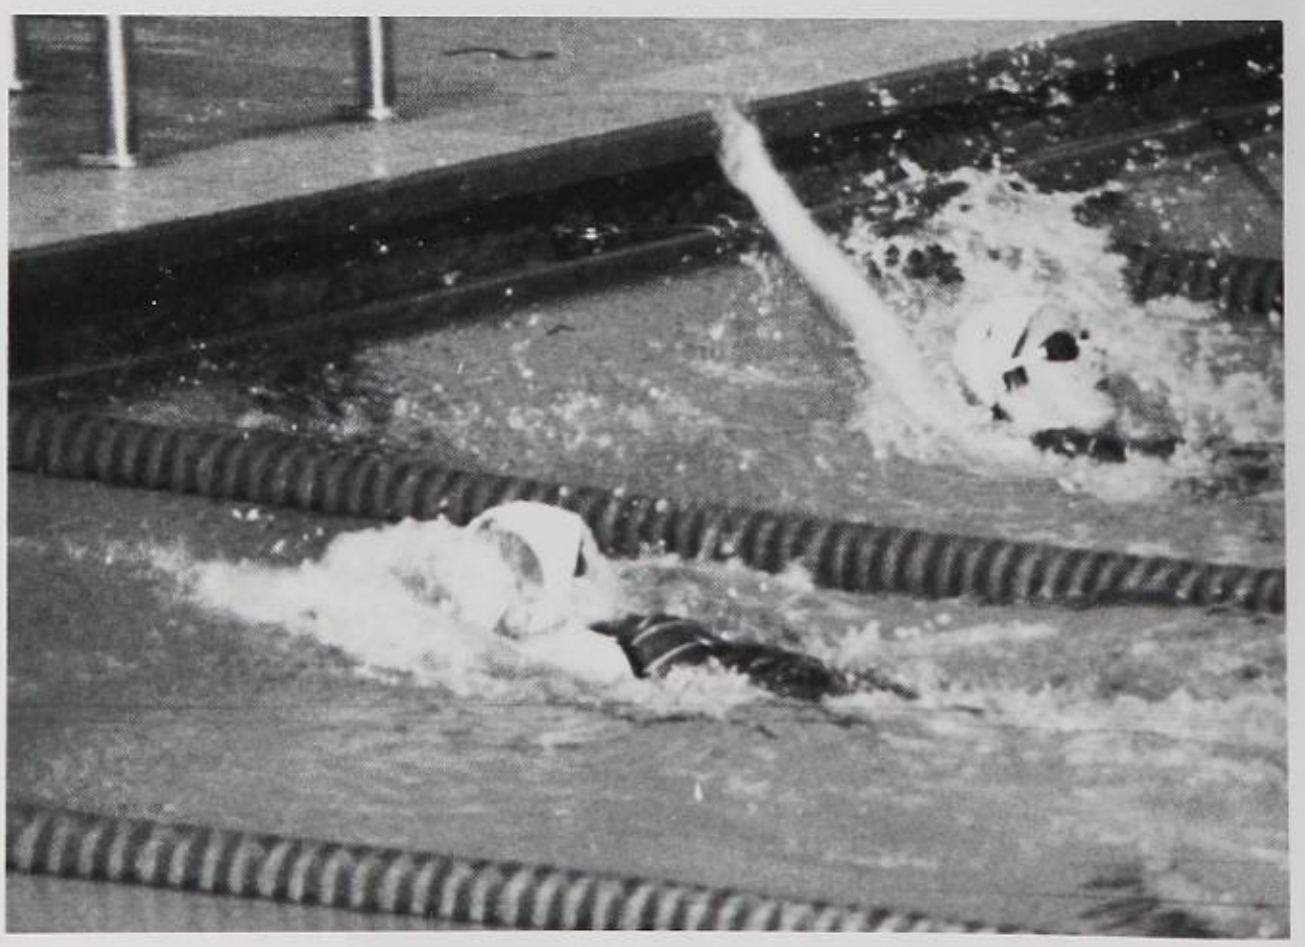


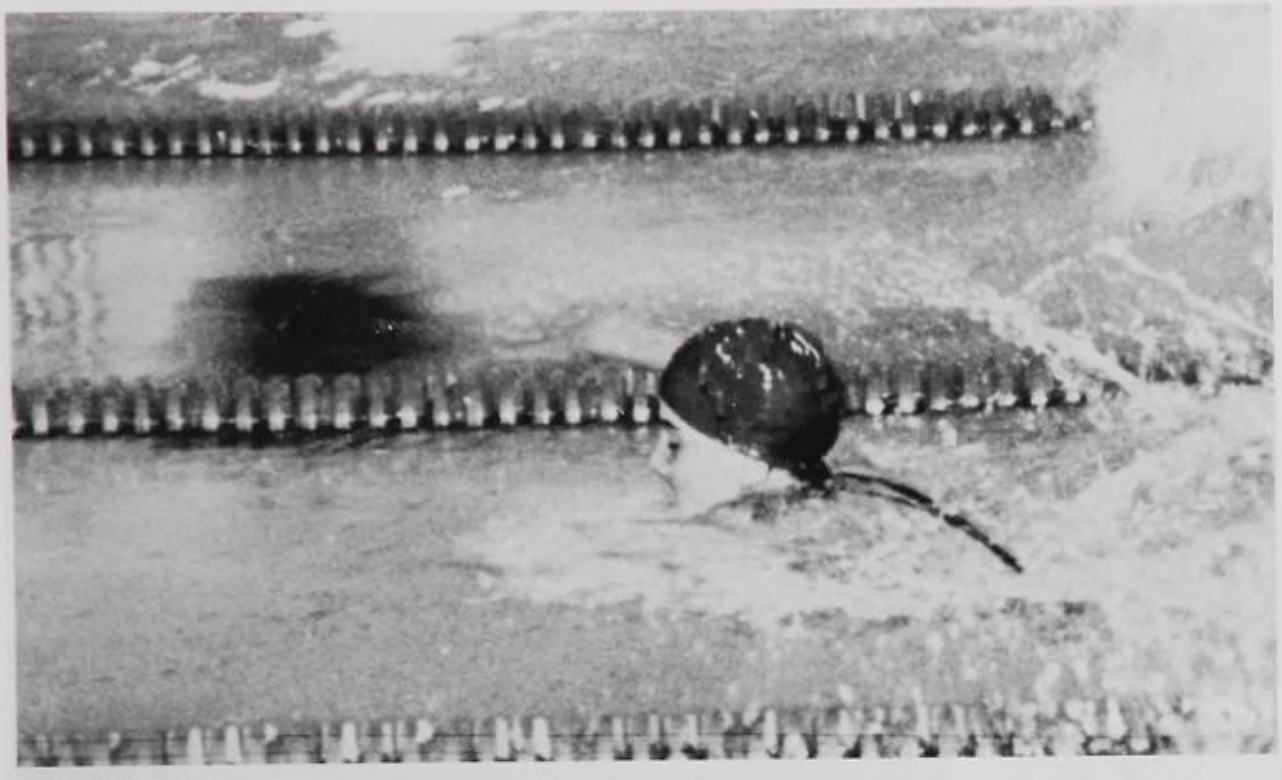
Girls Swimming Team Builds

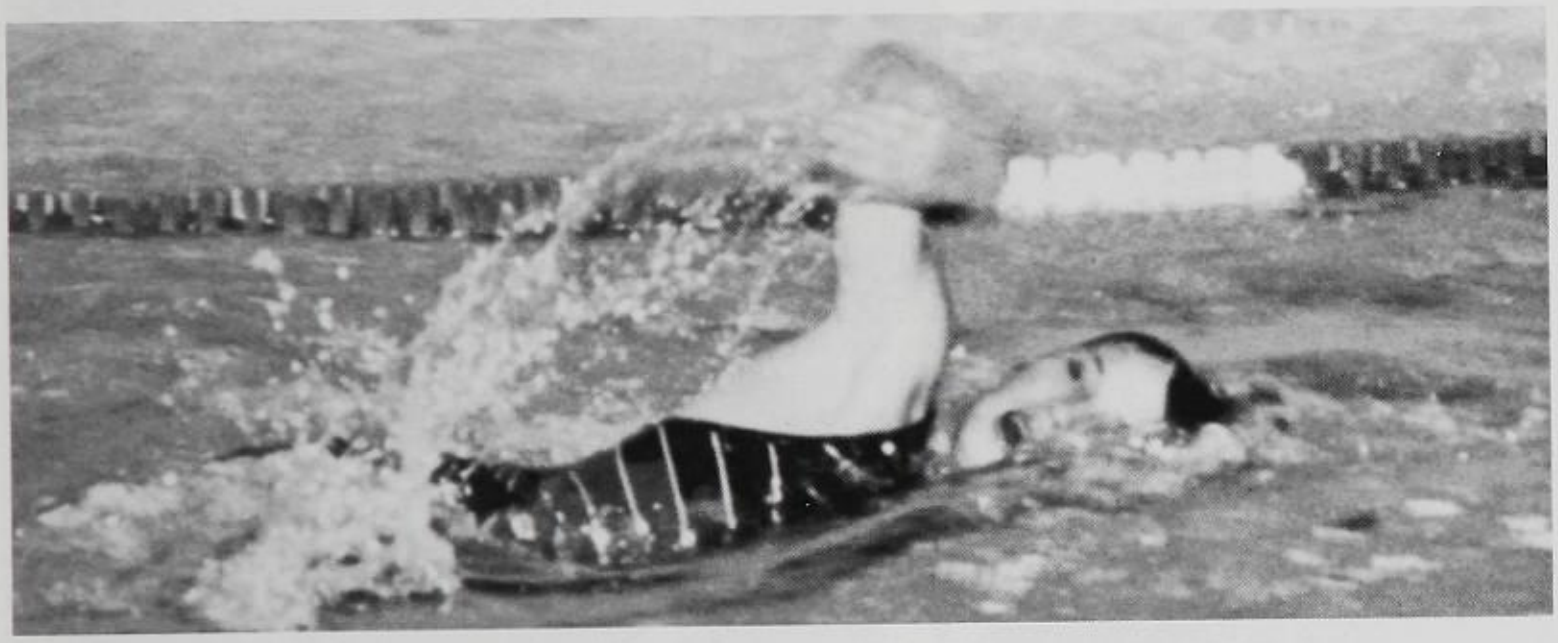
This year was a season of rebuilding. The big problem was lack of participation. The Girls Swim Team has suffered from changing coaches yearly (four coaches in the past six years). Eric Minore, in his first year of coaching, has tried to establish some consistency which is needed to put the swimmers back on the winning track.

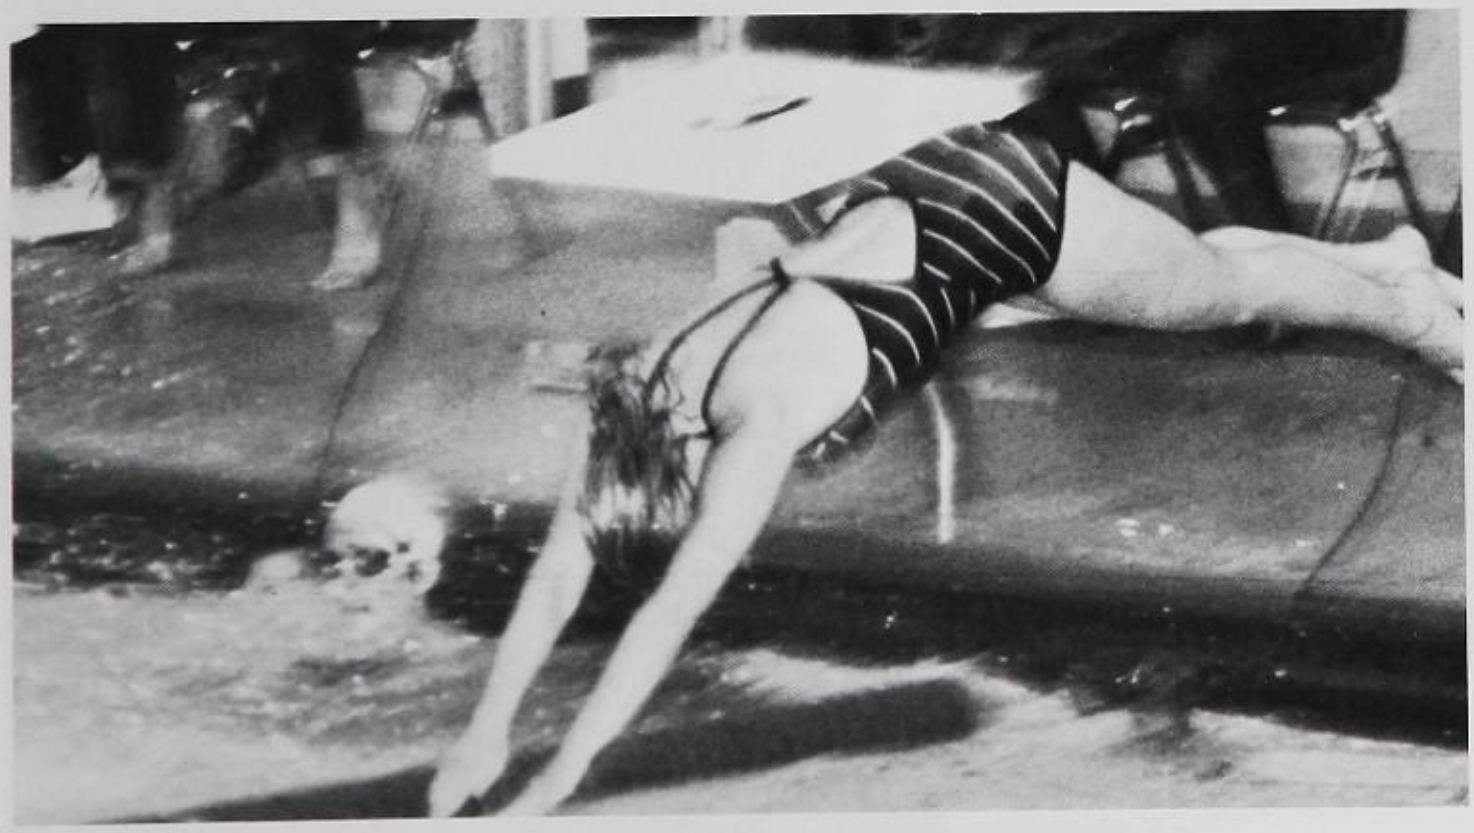
The vote for Most Valuable Player went to Anne-Elise Mair, who is also this year's captain, and Most Improved to Suzanne Abrahamsen.





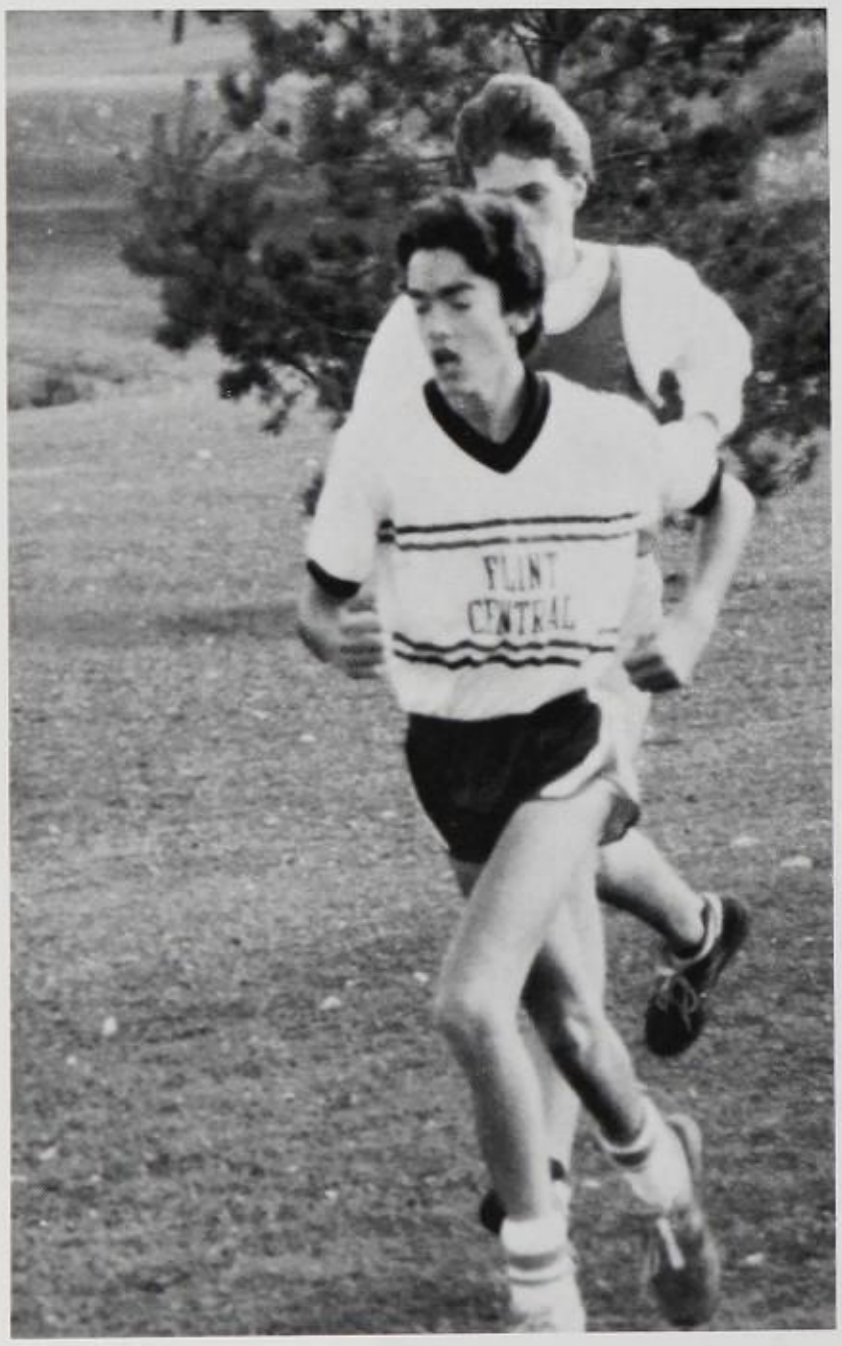






Boys Are City Champs

The Boy's Cross Country team had a very successful season this year. The dual meet record was nine and one. They were City Champs and Saginaw Valley runner-ups. Eric Goecker was the captain and also received Most Improved. Clarence O'Neal was the Most Valuable Player and Larry Cardinal and Ramzy Bathish received All-City honors. Ramzy will also be next year's captain.

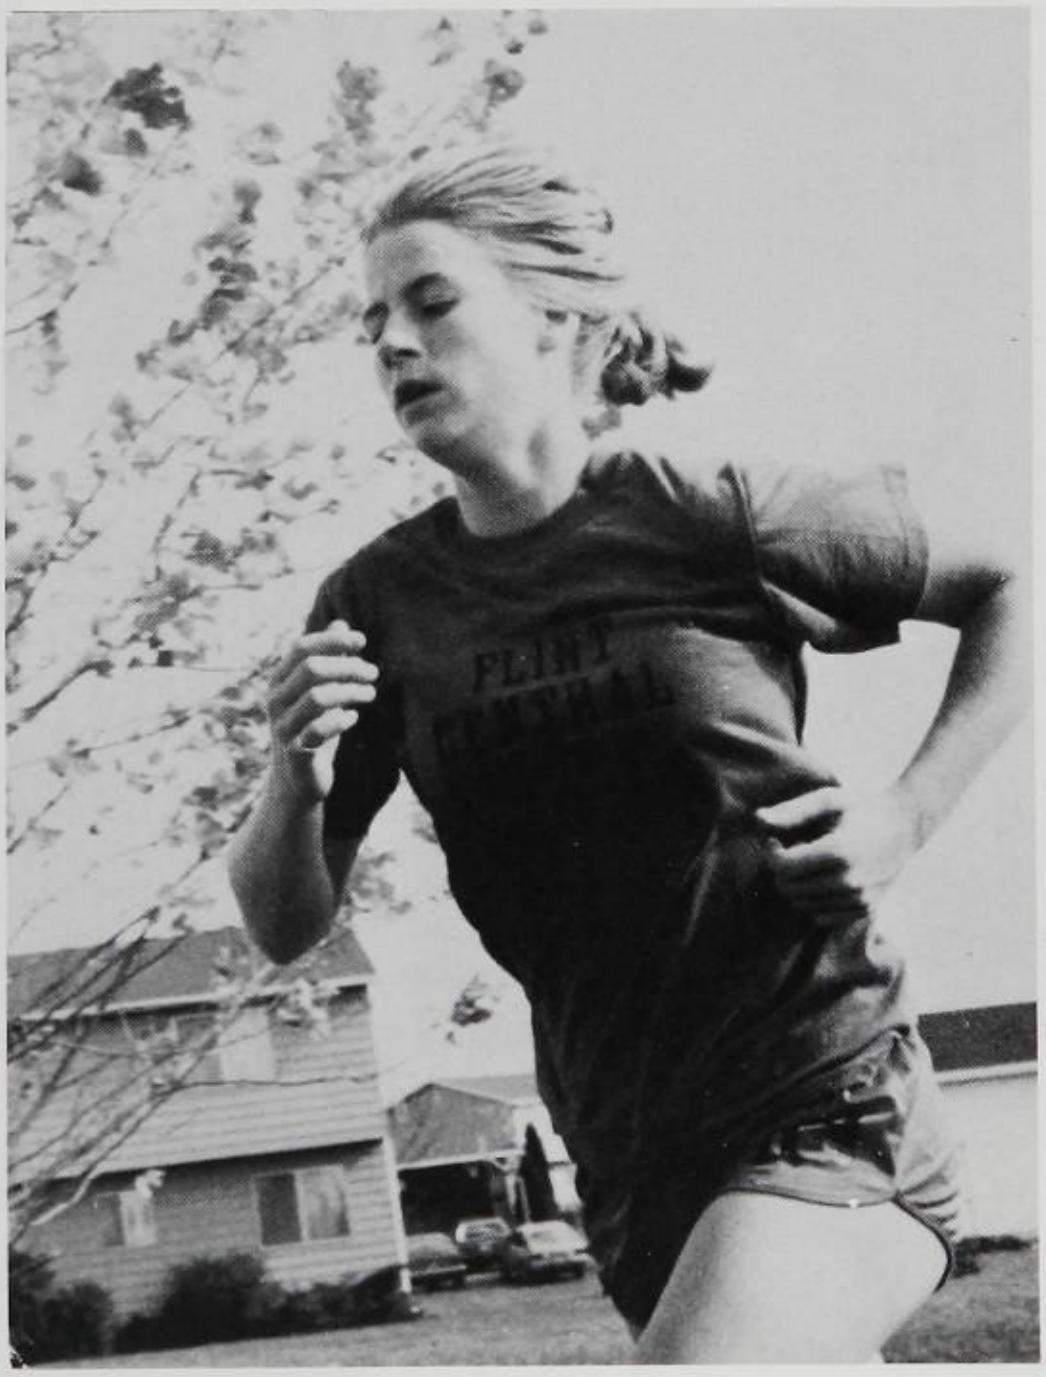


Country

Girls Have Successful Season

The 1983 Girls Cross Country team had their first really good season in several years. The dual meet record was four and five, with several outstanding performances by Central's lady runners. The high point of the season was Central's third place finish over Northern's fourth place finish in the Valley Meet.

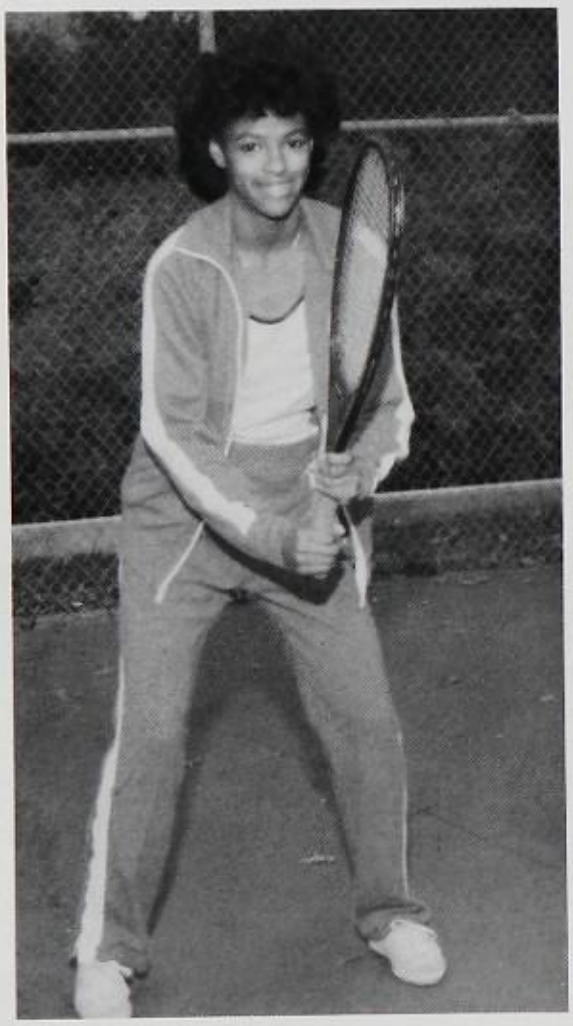
Awards this season went to Kristen Nemeth for Most Improved and to Edith Hooten for Most Valuable.

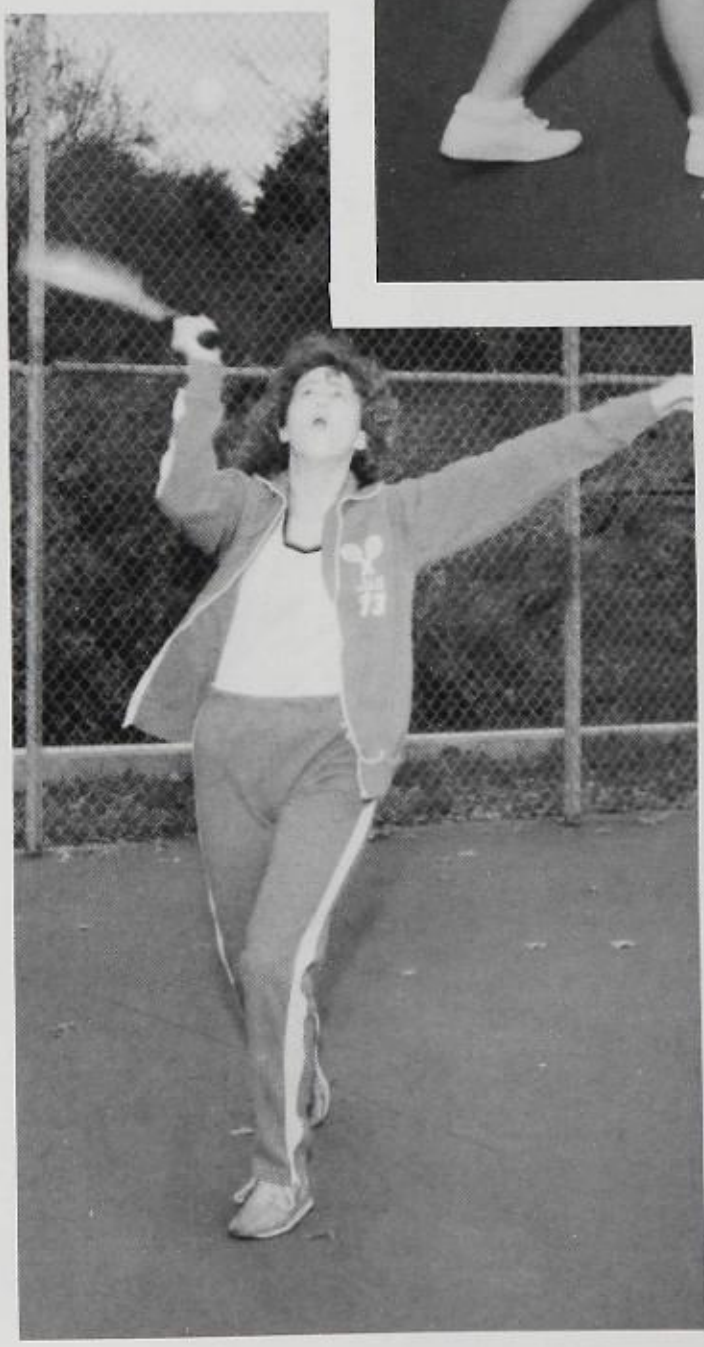


Girls Tennis Gains Experience

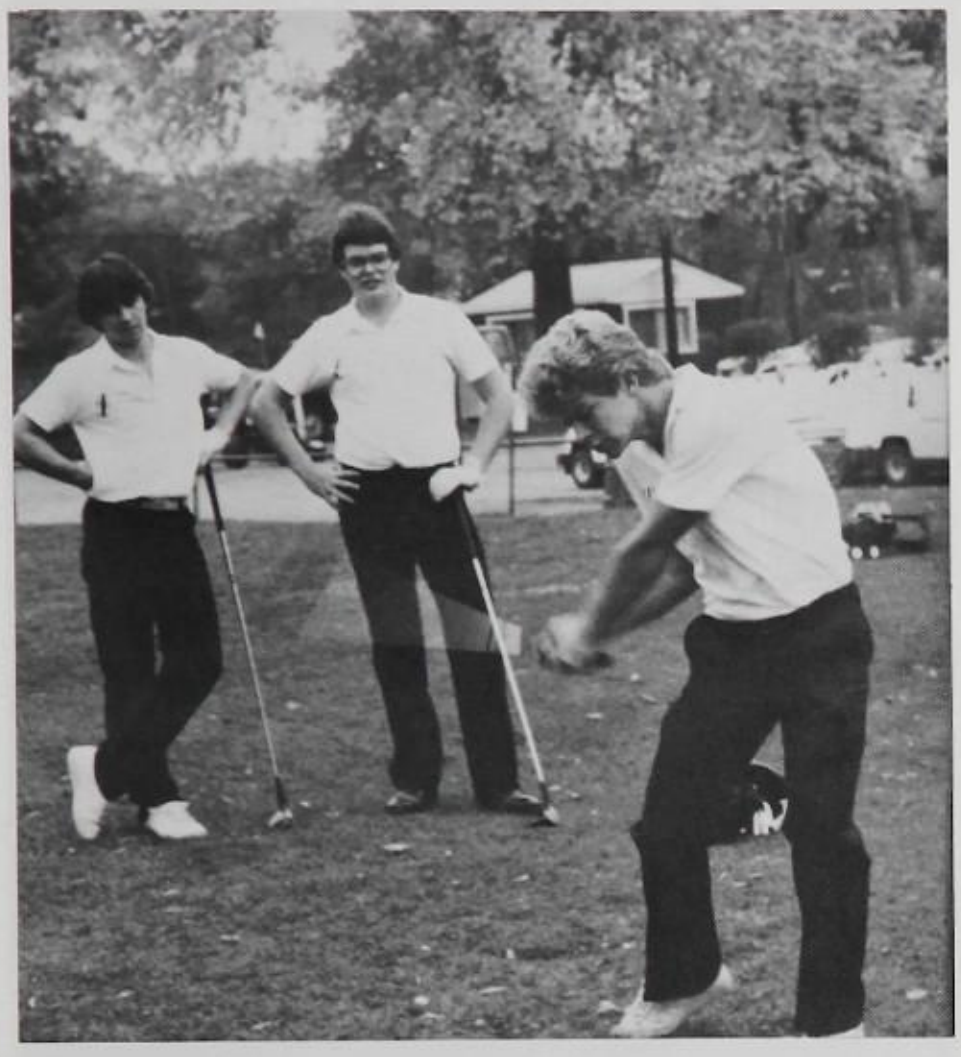
The 1983 Girls Tennis team consisted mostly of first year players who needed experience. It was a great group of eager players who learned a lot throughout the season. The team won a dual meet against Pontiac Northern, while dropping seven other contests. Central tied for seventh place in the Saginaw Valley Tournament. The Lady Indians came in third in the City Series and thirteenth in the Regionals.

Awards went to Sabrina Booth for Most Spirit, Kim Miller for Sportsmanship, while Katheryn Burroughs was the Most Improved. The Most Valuable award went to Lisa Copeland.



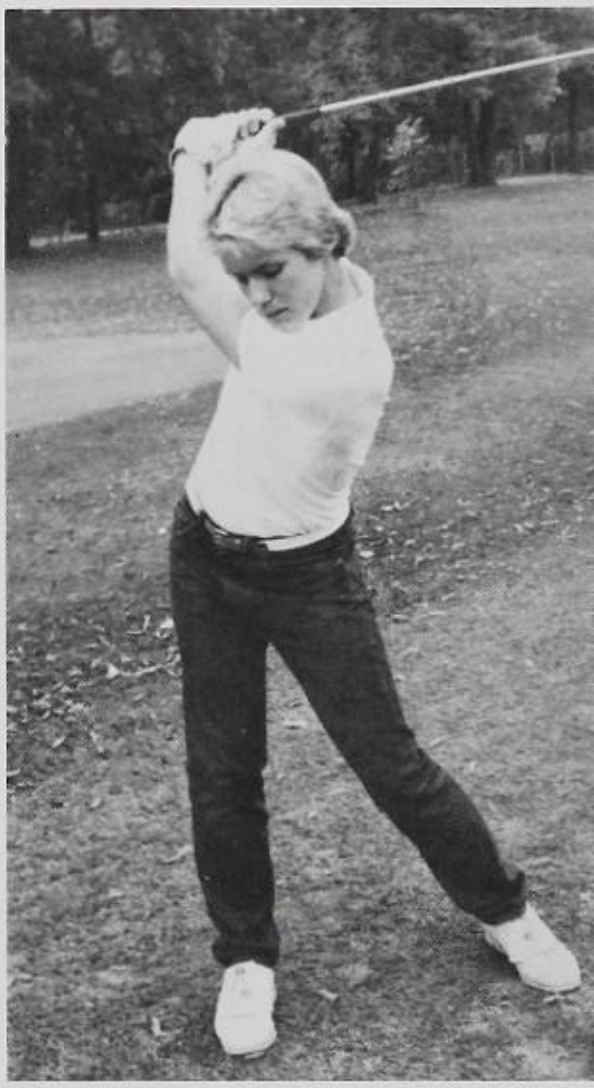


Golf Best in Ten Years

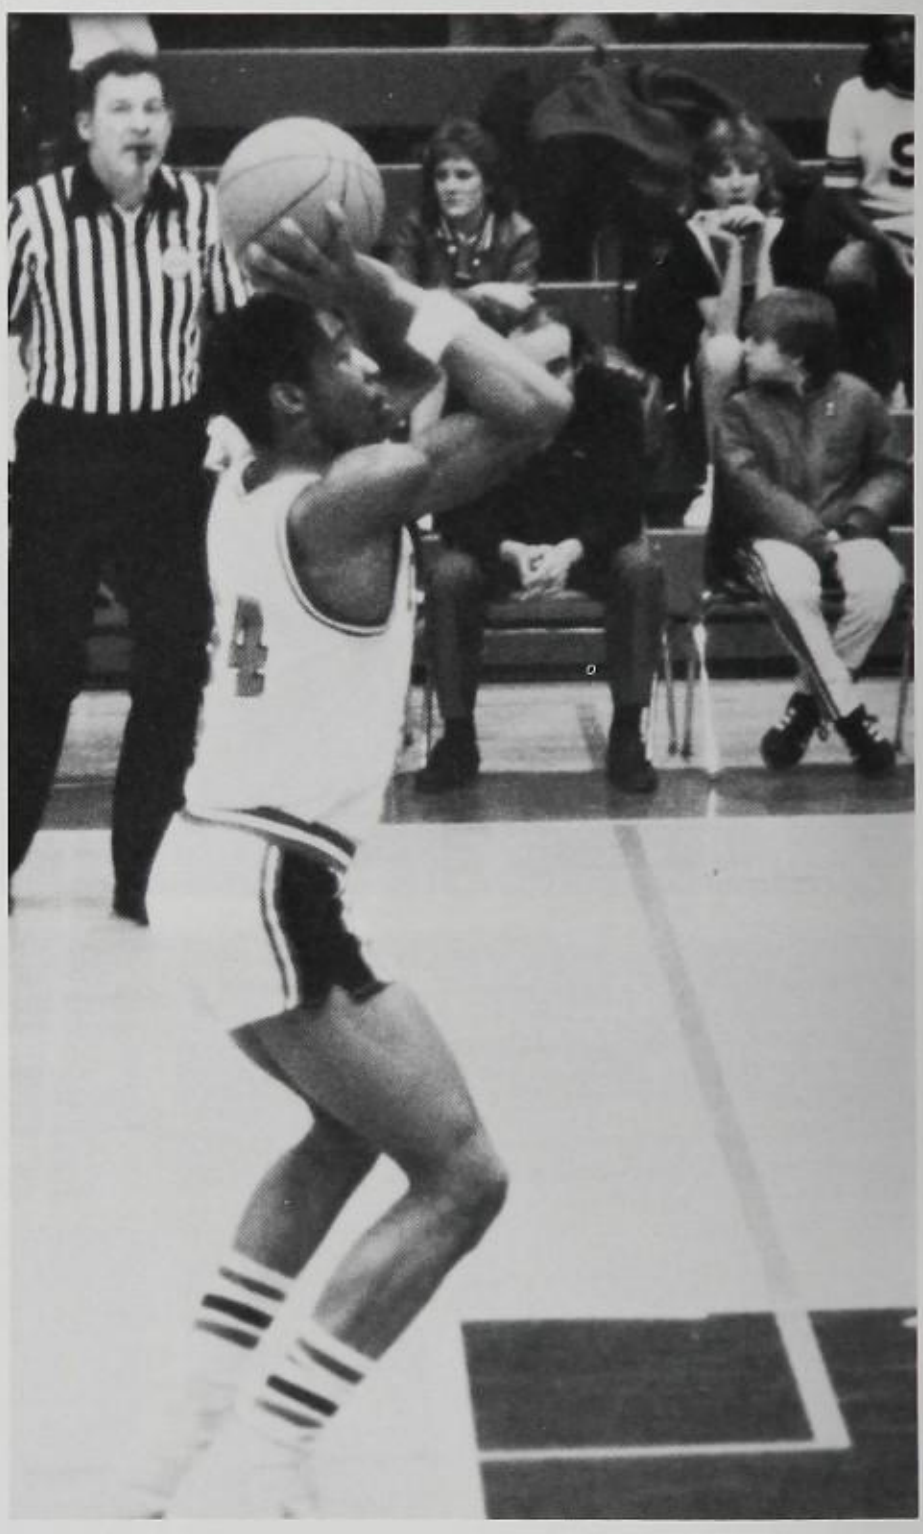


This year's season has been very rewarding. The Dual Meet record was eight wins against only four losses. The golf team had their best average in the past ten years. Wayne Murray was a City Medalist and Tom Warda received Honorable Mention at the Valley Conference. There was a new Varsity record for a low score of 308. Members of this record team were Wayne Murray, Dave Anglin, Charles Glasscock, and Tom Warda. Coach Jim Kareck was pleased to say that he had the best five golfers on the same team in many years. The best team score for a match was 84, the best in ten years.

Most Valuable Player award went to Wayne Murray and Most Improved to Dave Anglin.



Basketball



Four in '84 Falls Short

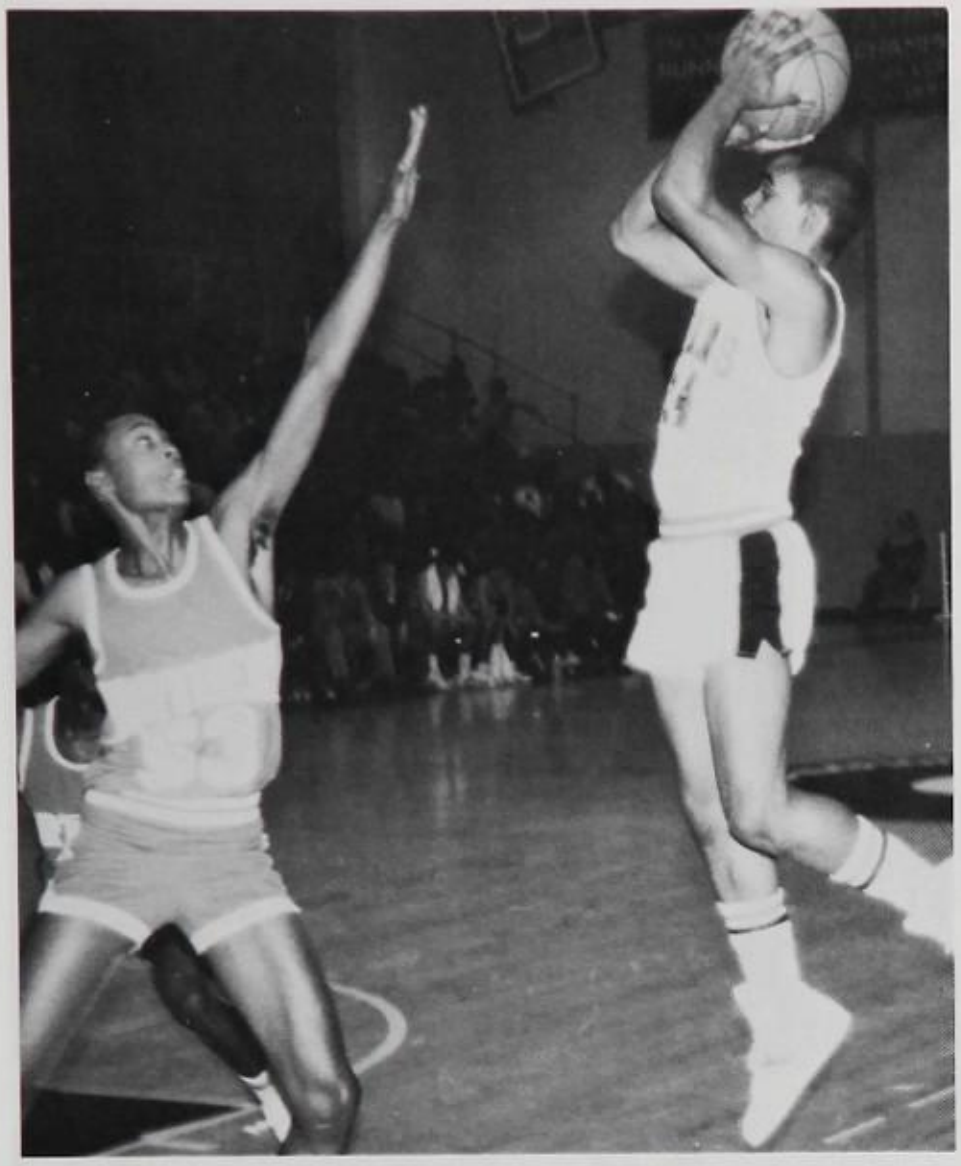
The 1984 Varsity Boys Basketball team made a spirited effort to defend their state championship that they had held for the past three seasons. They found Northwestern standing in their path and could not negotiate a win over their city rival, losing three times to the Wildcats.

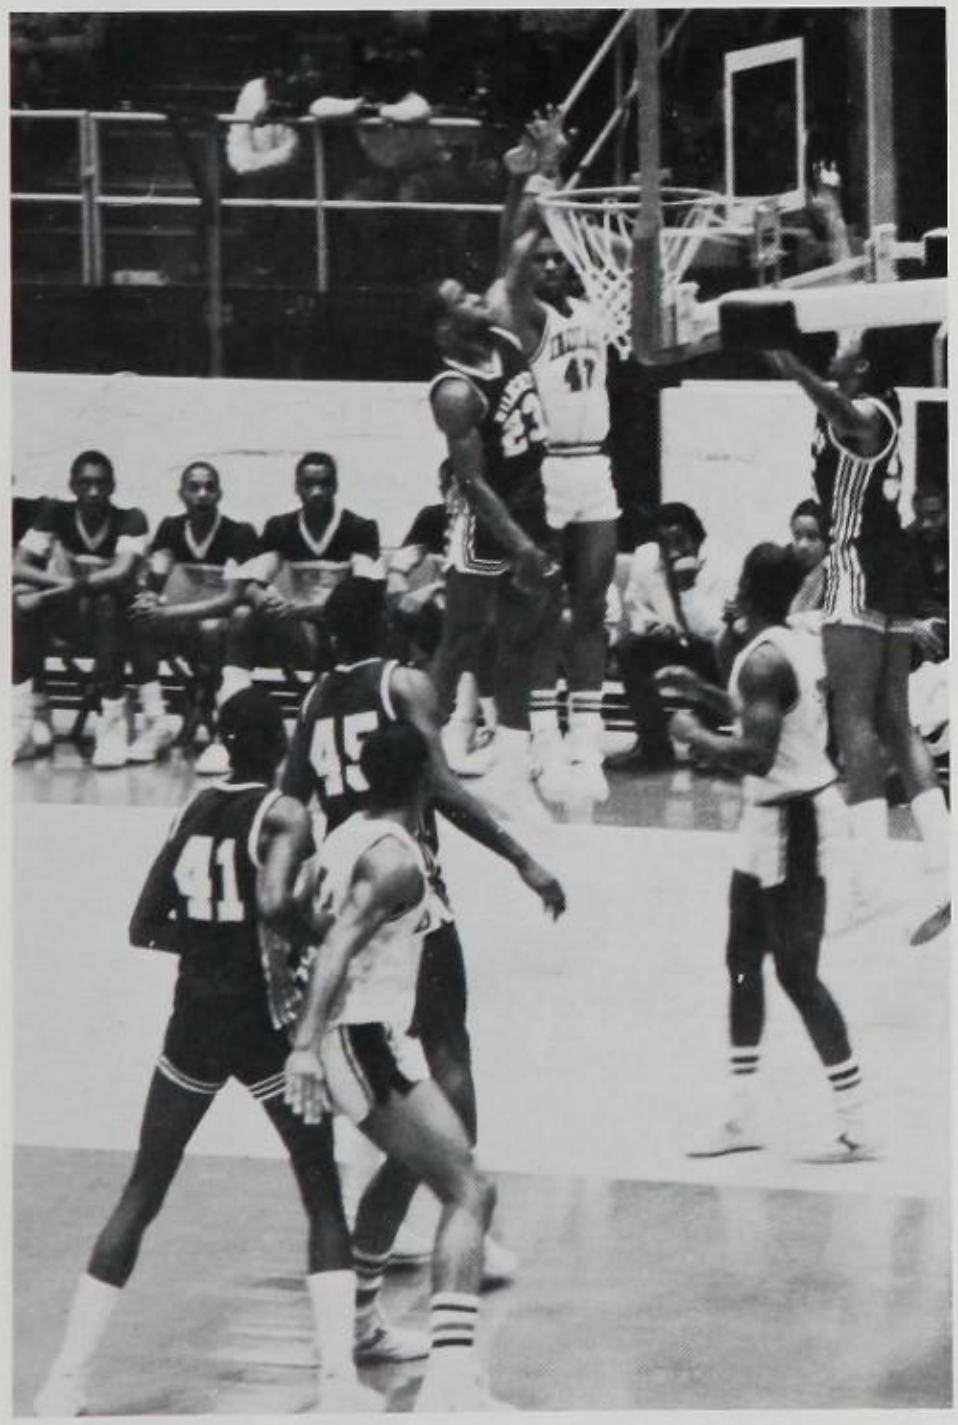
Central finished with a 21-4 record to push their record over the past five years to 121 wins and 16 losses. This ties the State record for the most wins over a five year span.

Terence Greene led the Indians in scoring with 560 points. Tyrone Williams was the big man in the rebounding department with 276 rebounds. Randy Levels chipped in with 266 points and Keith Smith added his keen defensive skills. These four formed the nucleus of the Indian attack as five others rotated at the fifth starting position.

Greene made all of the all-state teams while Williams was accorded honorable mention. The all-conference team had Greene on the first team and Levels as honorable mention. Greene was the only Indian on the All-City Team. Smith won the Coach's Free Throw trophy with a 77.4 percentage. Williams was voted the Most Improved player on the Team. Greene was chosen by his teammates as the team's most valuable player.

The outlook for next season is optimistic as only two players will be lost through graduation. Nine of the players return with only Williams and Jeff Massey graduating.





J.V.'s Have Losing Season

The 1983-84 Boys Junior Varsity Basketball Team had a record of seven wins against thirteen losses. While the team some outstanding individual performers, the team as a whole never quite worked together to produce a majority of wins. Jerome Washington has the best field goal percentage with 71%, closely followed by Anthony Buford and Frank Green, both with 69%. Martin Traylor topped the scoring with 241 points with Washington scoring 169 points and Greene with 168. The top rebounder was Bilal Farrakhan with 111, followed by Martin Traylor with 85 and Franke Greene with 84.

The English Department is designed to aid students in developing a competence in reading, speaking, writing, and understanding the English language. The Humanities Magnet program is a very important part of the English Department. Students from all over the city come to central to participate in this challenging program, now in its eighth year.

New Humanities courses this year include Mythology and World Literature. Mrs. Helen Collins is again teaching several English sections after a lapse of several years.

Social Studies

Social Studies is the third largest department at Central. Students are required to take two years of social studies, and many take three years. A city-wide revision of the required courses has taken place, with the new courses being phased in over a three year period. This year, the ninth graders are only being offered World History or World Culture. Next year, only U.S. or American History will fullfill the U.S. History requirement. Also next year there will be a new Economics course. Civics and American government will be offered only in the junior and senior years starting next year.

This year, due to declining enrollment while the Civics is being changed from a Freshmen to a Junior class, Central lost John Fouts to Northwestern, and Dick Gale to Whittier. In November, however, Carol Jackson was recalled to Central.

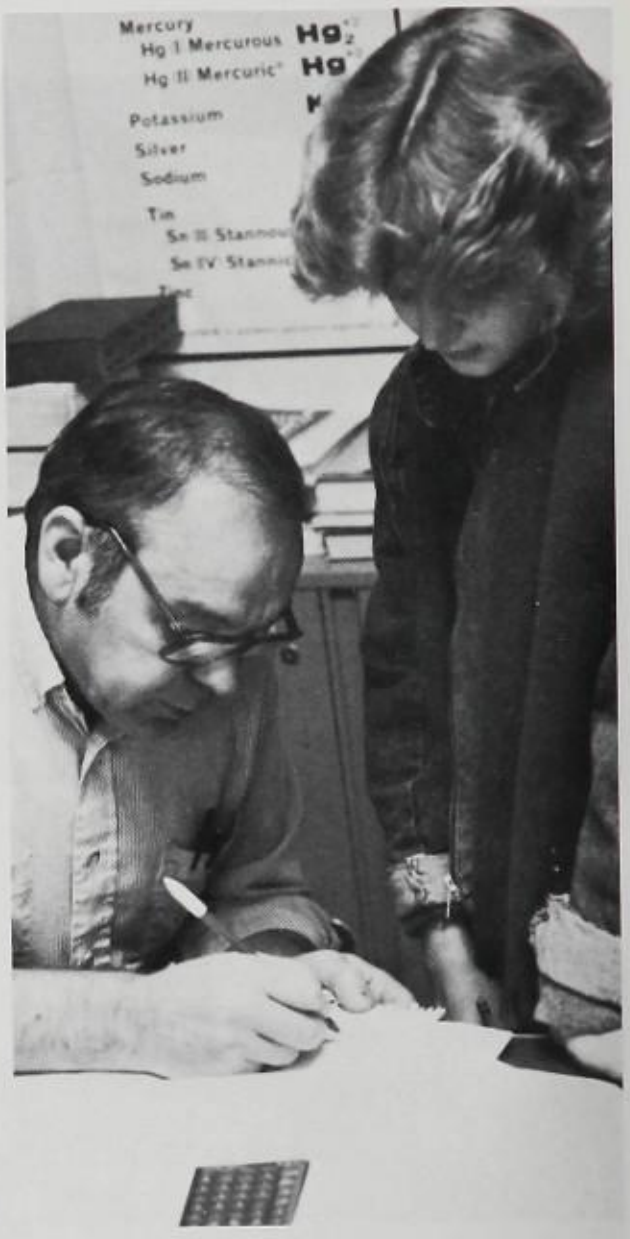
Science



The Science Department is designed to expose students to the many aspects of living material, the interaction of chemicals, and the laws of physics. Through the many courses offered, students gain a better understanding of the world in which they live.

Earth Science is a new, two semester class that deals with all aspects of the earth and it's development including geology, astronomy, soils, and much more.

There is a new addition to the staff in the Science Department, Mr. Royce Bloomer. He comes to Central with a background and personal interest in Earth Science.

The Business Education Department provides instructional programs for all students according to their interests and needs. It provides occupational instruction for students desiring careers in business as well as those planning for higher education.

This year several more TRS-80 computers have been added to teach word processing. Also this year, Mr. Paraschos is teaching full time in the department, while Mrs. Collins is being shared with the English dept.

The Fine Arts Department is designed to expose students to new cultural awareness through participation in the visual and performing arts.

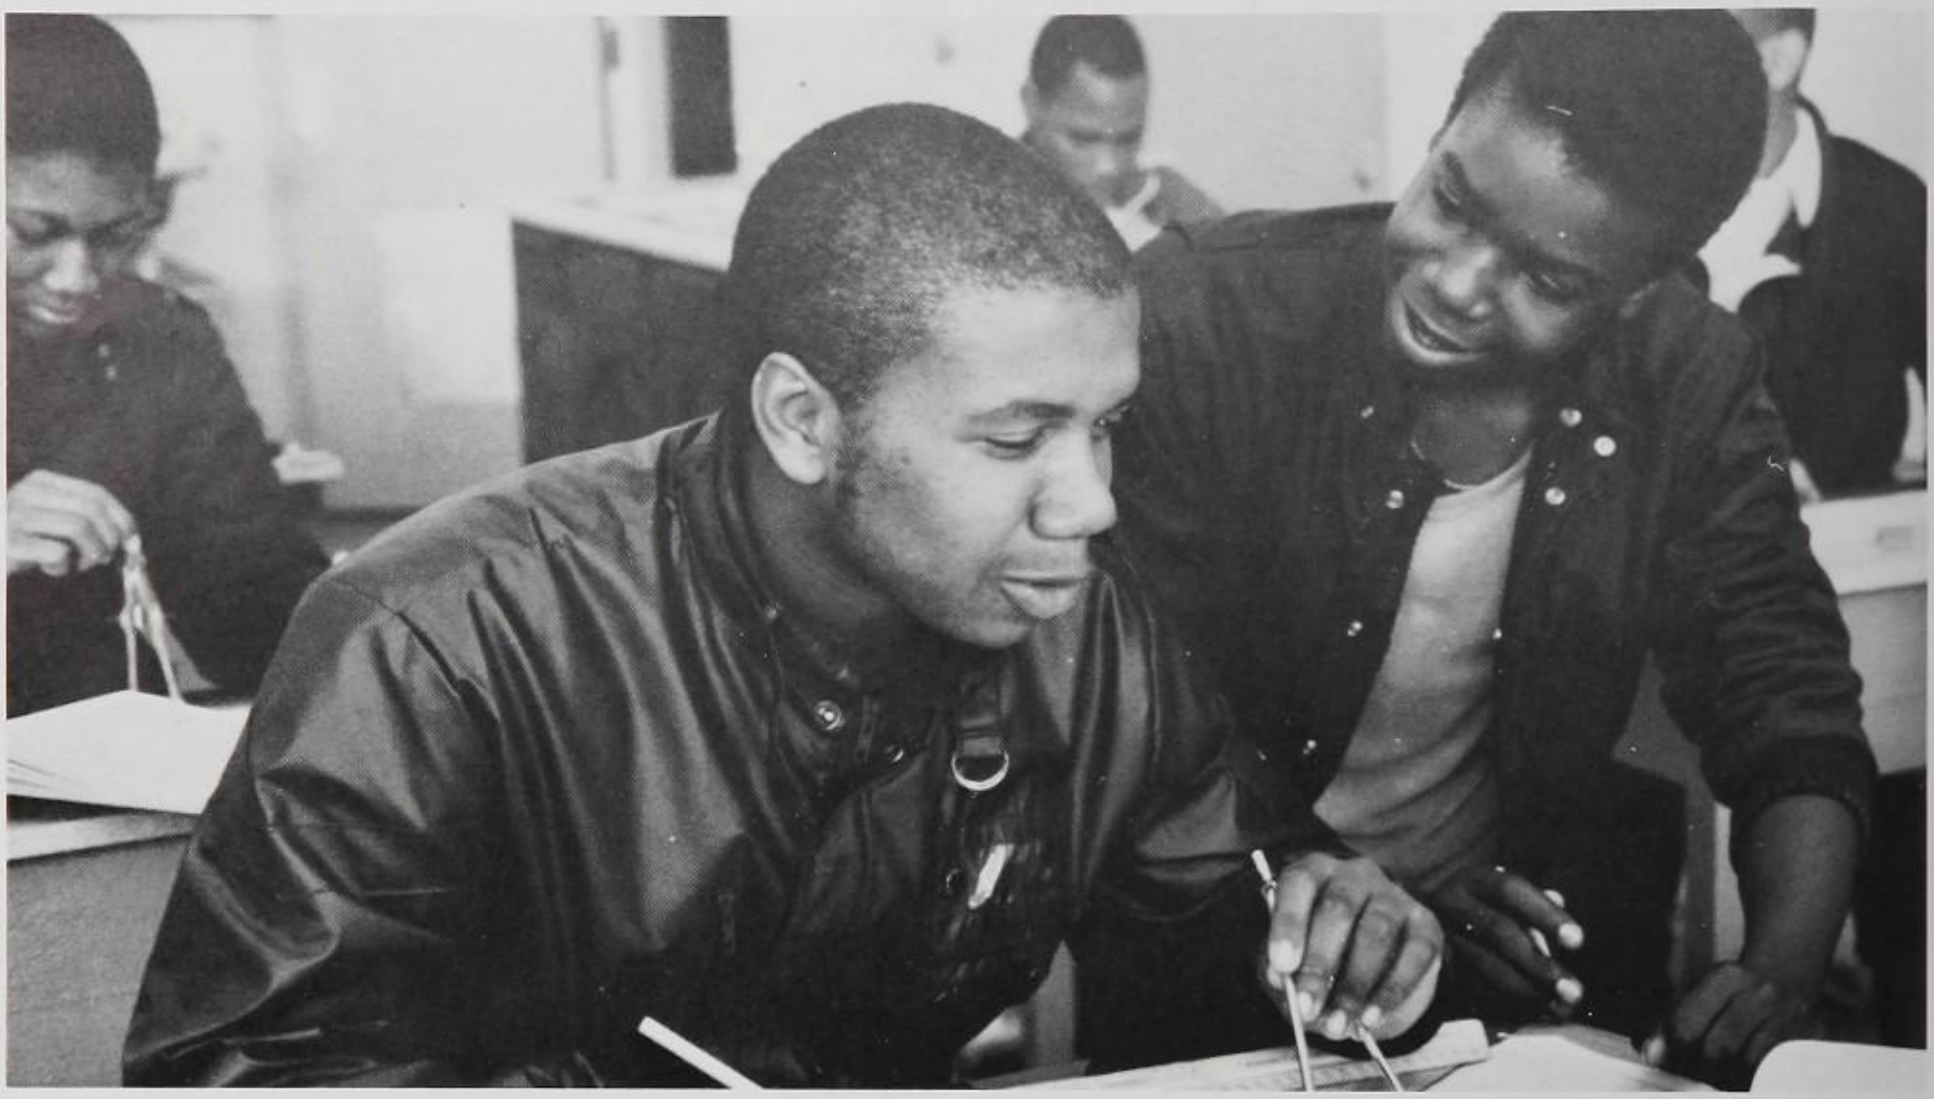
Mr. George Crear, previously from Whitter Middle school, joined the Fine Arts staff here at Central this year. Mr. Crear is an instrumental instructor, teaching classes in Instrumental Study, Instrumental Ensemble, Orchestra and, of course, Marching Band!

In the area of vocal music and piano, several classes are offered, all of which participate in concerts throughout the year.

Drama and art are also part of the Fine Arts program at Central. Over ten different art classes are offered, including Sculpture and Ceramics, Lettering and Poster Making, Painting, and Drawing.

In the area of Drama, in addition to the plays presented each year, there are daily classes in such areas as improvisation and acting, as well as the Touring Ensemble.

Industrial arts



Eddie Ford

Pat Laveck

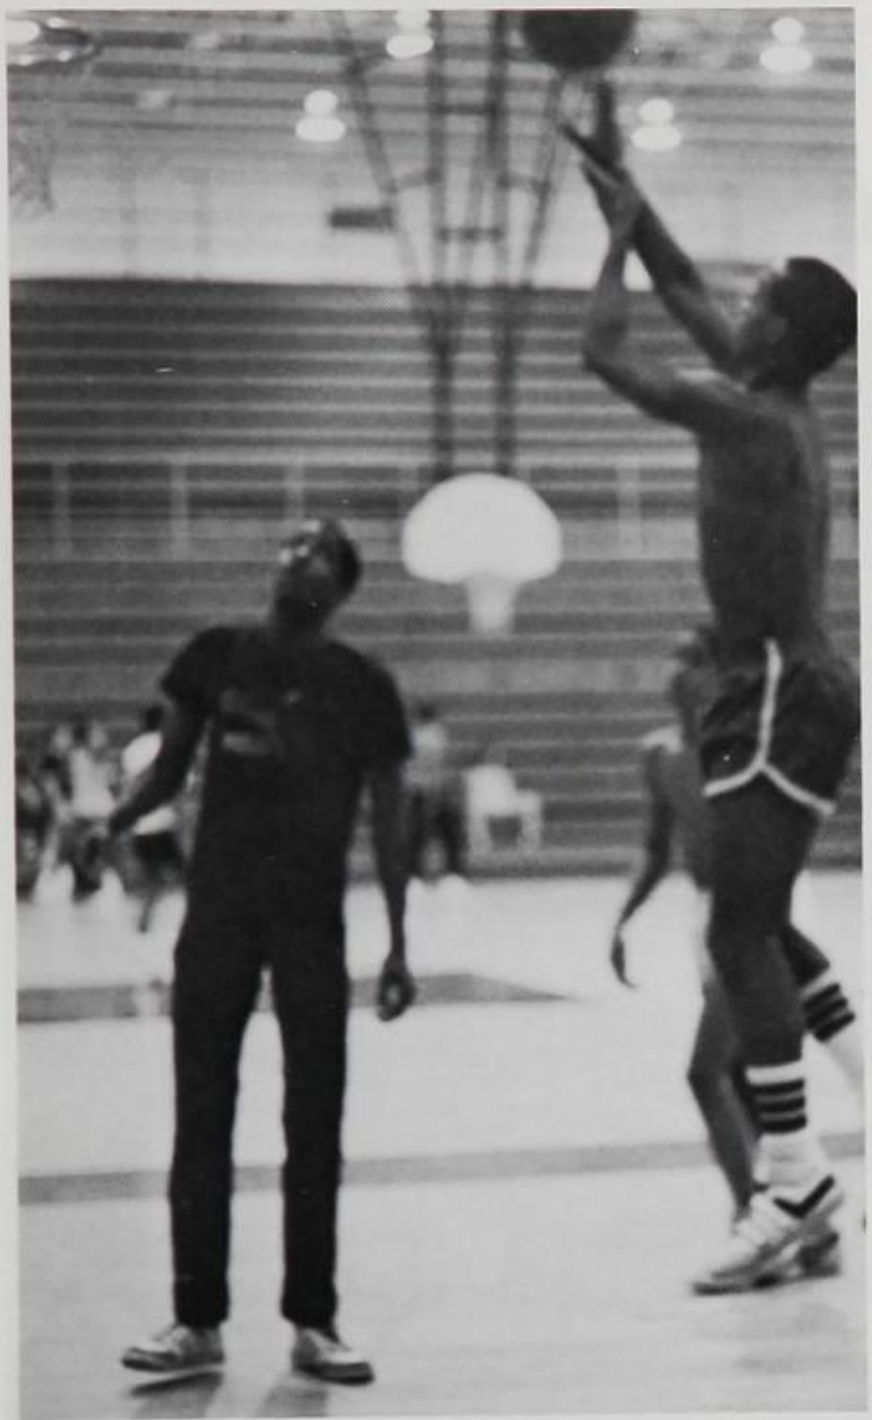
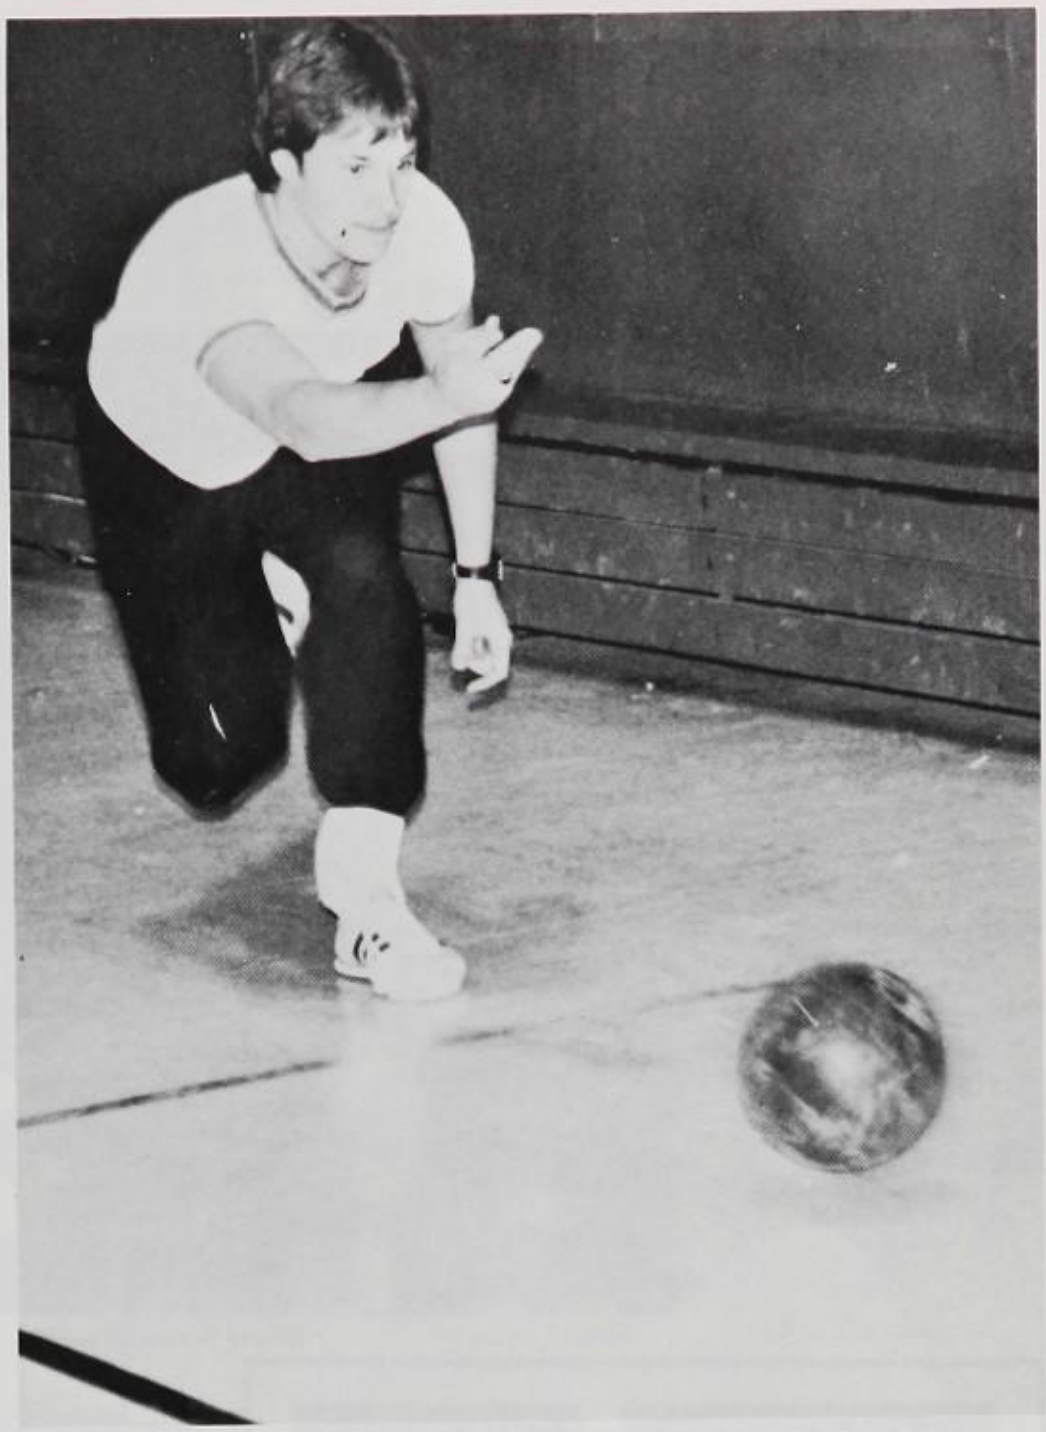
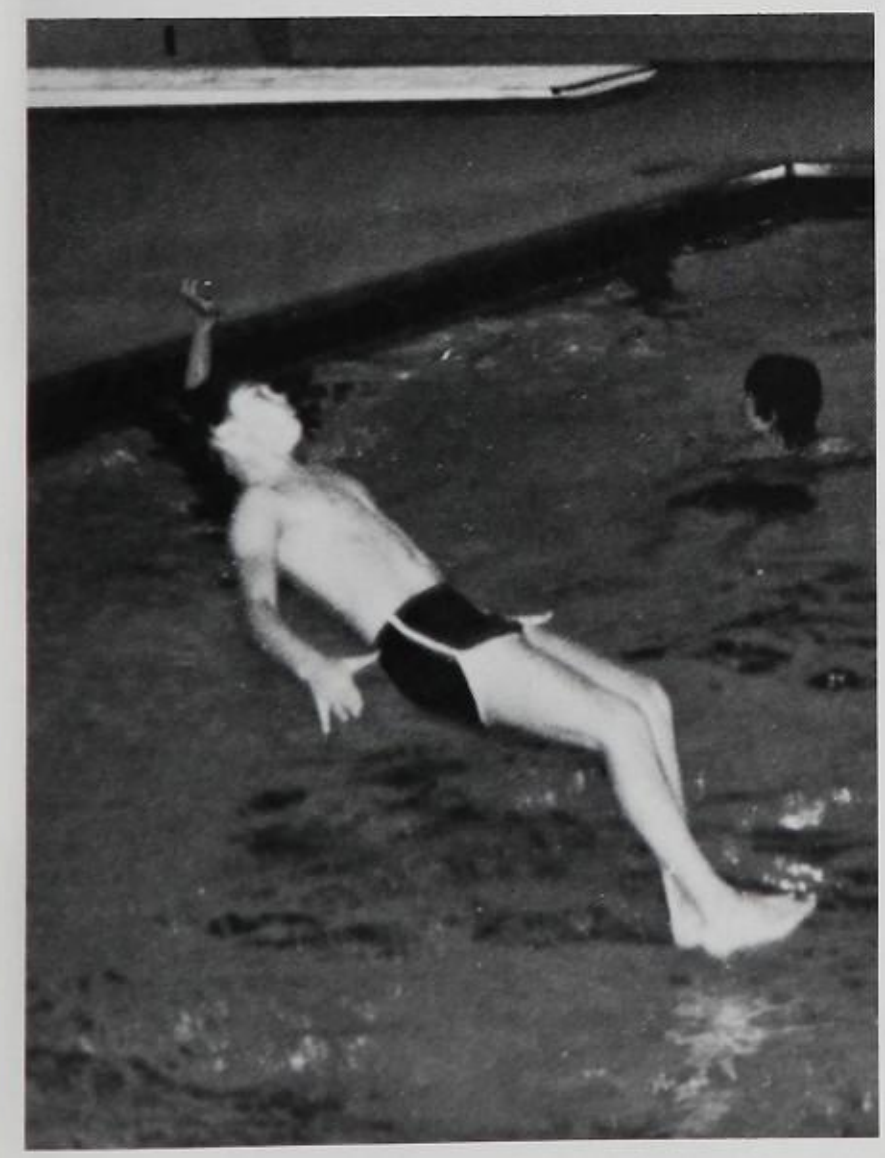
Industrial Arts courses give students the opportunity for hands-on experience in doing some of the same tasks they may later do in industry or in the home. This year, there are no new courses, but the Careers in Industry magnet class is being taught by Warren Miller, who took the place of Dave Beardslee who was transfered to Mott Adult High School.

Physical Education







June Cabell

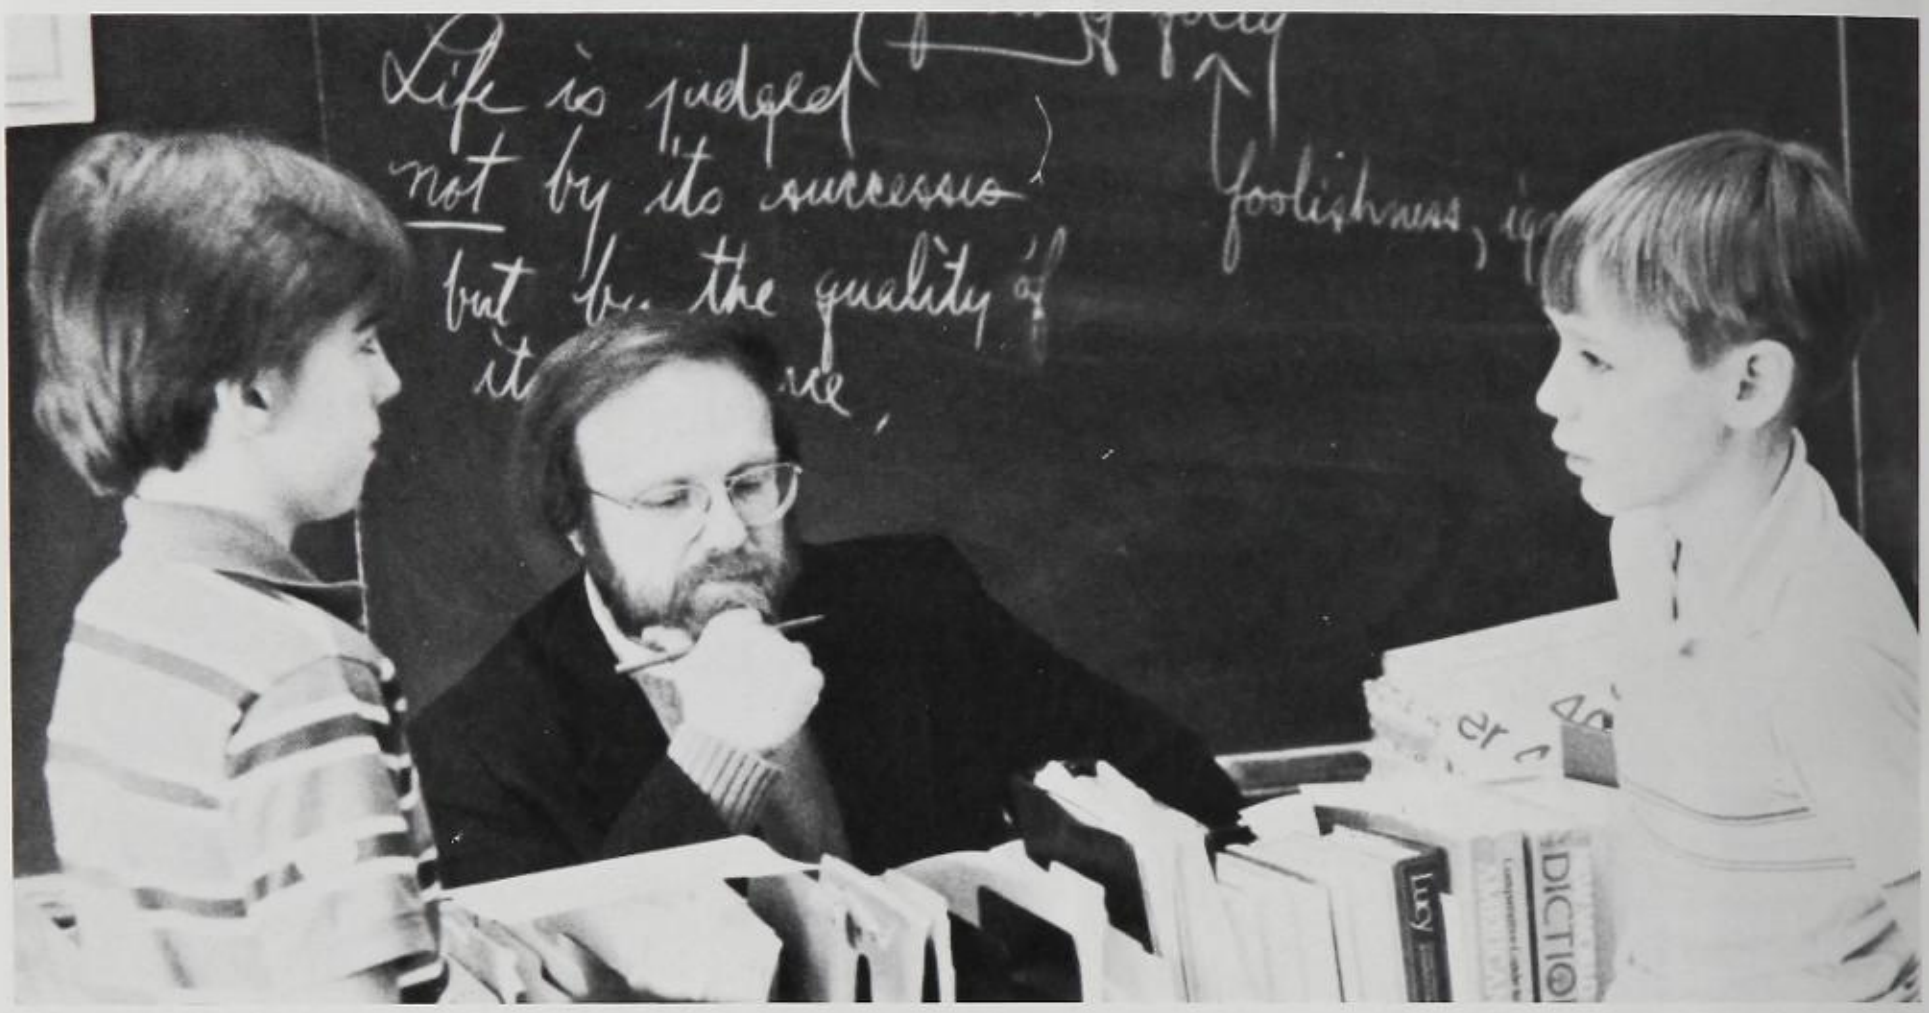
Judy Hamilton

Jim Kareck

Fred Ireland

At Central Physical Education is a required course to take. It's goals are to maintain and promote all aspects of physical fitness necessary for healthful modern day living. This year there is one new course being offered; it is Modern Dance for Health and Fitness. These courses are designed to help students improve their physique and coordination. After participating in group sports such as softball, basketball, and track, they learn teamwork. However, the most beneficial lesson learned is sportsmanship.

Foreign Language



Camile Coleman

Jerry Graves

The main objective of the Foreign Language Department is to teach a foreign language so students can speak, read and write with a natural conversational ability.

After an absence of several years, German is being taught once again at Central. Whittier students are attending Central and taking German as well as Spanish and French.

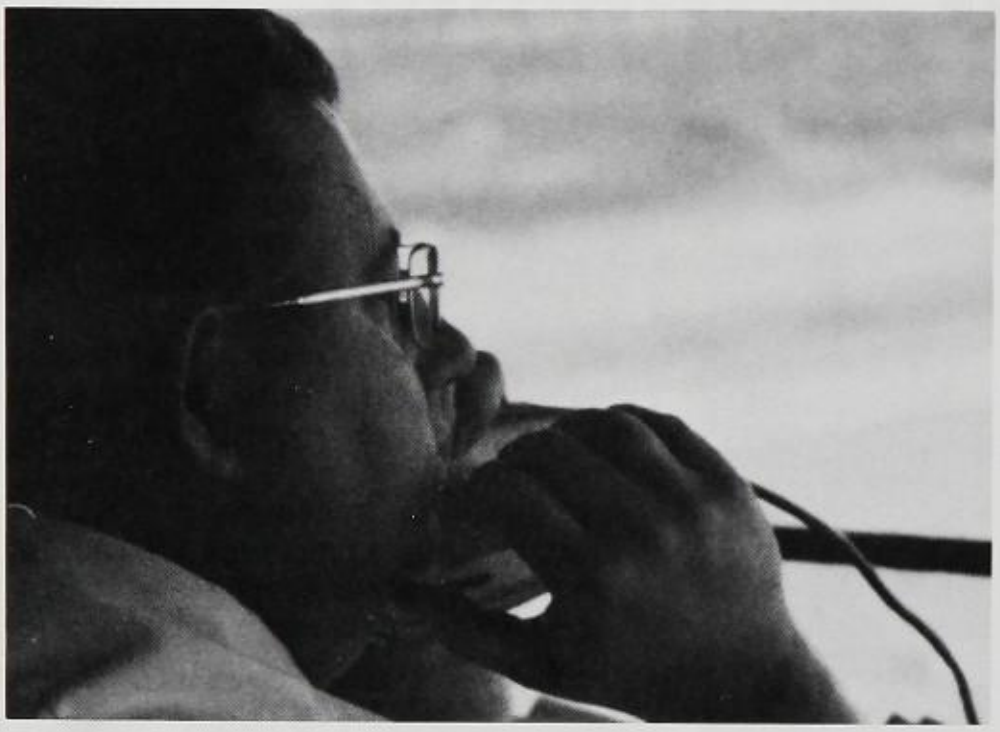
Central's Bilingual program is unique in Flint High Schools. Students for whom English is a second language benefit by being able to receive special help in coping with their understanding of the English language. Entire sections of some required classes are taught especially for the bilingual students.

Drivers Education



Driver Education is offered to all students at Central. Its purpose is to teach teenagers safe and defensive driving skills, along with an overview of the mechanical workings of automobiles. Students are given the opportunity to practice these skills both on the range and on the open road. Upon the successful comple-tion of the course a student is ready to face the people at the license bureau and the other drivers on the streets.

Central's Counseling Department helps students in many ways. It sees that they take the correct classes, get enough credits, take the appropriate tests, and fill out the proper applications. Special counselors aid students in obtaining jobs for credit through the co-op program, and in getting regular jobs after school or after graduation through the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Central is fortunate to have a list of regular substitute teachers to call upon. On any given day, as many as six or eight regular teachers may be absent, either because of illness or emergency, or because of personal or professional business. Most subs are unable to work every day, but those who our regulars help to reduce the disruption caused by teacher absences.

Community Director

Jim Beaubien

The position of Community School Director essentially means the "after school principal". He is responsible for coordinating all late afternoon and evening activities (except interscholastic sports).

Athletic Director

C.G. "Tim" Bograkos

The main responsibility of the Athletic Director is to coordinate all aspects of the interscholastic program. This includes all boys and girls sports, varsity and J.V. Over 200 athletic events are scheduled each year.

Library

Maureen Corser

Chris Cook

Library services are vital to students and teachers alike. Basic library services include providing students with a wide variety of current books, both fiction and non-fiction, along with a vast array of reference materials and magazines. The library also has career information available for students, as well as a computer center.

For teachers, the library is the source of a large collection of filmstrips and multimedia kits, audio visual equipment, and textbooks, along with some duplicating equipment.

Maintenance

Doris Zillich

Central's new maintenance supervisor came from Whittier. She has been with the Board of Education for 27 years. She is in charge of a staff of over twenty. Not only must the building be cleaned every day, but repairs must also be done regularly.

All great schools have great support services. The secretaries, the subs, the maintenance, the school security all contribute to the smooth operation of Central. Specialized services are also a must for a large operation like Central. Included in Central's support staff are some of the highest seniority people in the building, giving us the benefit of many years of experience. Service students also play a helping role at Central every day.

School Security

John Kononchuck

School security is a thankless job, but a necessary and vital service to Central. The halls are more quiet during class and uninvited visitors are kept to a minimum.
